Letters and Life

THE MYSTERIES OF IDENTITY

A Theme in Modern Literature

Robert Langbaum. University of Virginia. Blending intellectual history and literary criticism, Langbaum examines changing attitudes toward the question of identity in modern literature – specifically in the works of Wordsworth, Arnold, Eliot, Beckett, Yeats and Lawrence. $13.95

UNDER SIEGE

Literary Life in London, 1939-45

Robert Hewison. Exhilarating, frustrating, myth-making, cynical – all the diversity of intellectual and artistic life in the London of the Blitz is vividly evoked in this unusual, anecdote filled social and literary history. With 16 illustrations, $11.95

THE FIRE AND THE SUN

Why Plato Banished the Artists

Iris Murdoch. Oxford University. The eminent philosopher and novelist takes a stimulating look at Plato's theories of art, providing a sympathetic explanation of his hostility to it and a wide-ranging discussion of the ways his thinking influenced later ideas about the role of art in society. $5.95

PAPERS TIGERS

The Ideal Fictions of Jorge Luis Borges

John Sturrock. In analyzing the intricate short fictions of Borges, Sturrock finds narratives that do not simply dramatize ideas but also make important statements, in ingeniously dramatic form, about the very process by which narrative fiction is made. $12.95
