Voice of the Marketplace

A History of the National Petroleum Council

JOSEPH A. PRATT, WILLIAM H. BECKER, AND

WILLIAM M. MCCLENAHAN, JR.

INTRODUCTION BY DANIEL YERGIN

The National Petroleum Council (NPC) emerged out of the close cooperation between the petroleum industry and the federal government during World War II. In the last fifty-plus years, the Council has evolved into a voice of the marketplace, analyzing conditions in the petroleum industry and publishing its findings in reports widely considered authoritative and useful. Here, Pratt, Becker, and McClenahan analyze the choices and strategies that have given the Council the adaptability and resilience to survive. 256 pp. 21 b&w photos. Index. Appendices. $39.95

Broken Trusts

The Texas Attorney General versus the Oil Industry, 1889–1909

JONATHAN W. SINGER

Nineteenth-century editorial cartoons often pictured government and industry hand-in-hand. Yet as early as 1889 Texas had enacted an antitrust law to curb the power of monopolies. For most of the first twenty-five years following the enactment of the Sherman Antitrust Act, federal enforcement efforts were extremely limited. Texas was one of several states whose attorneys general prosecuted antitrust violations with vigor. In Broken Trusts, Singer offers the definitive study of the formative period of antitrust enforcement in Texas. 416 pp. 22 b&w illus. Bib. Index. $49.95

A CD-ROM Series

The decisions of the Supreme Court are forged by arguments presented by the nation's premier lawyers, polished by tough questions from the justices, and presented in written decisions and dissents.
