Renewal and Critique in Social Theory

Editors:

Rod Aya,

Martin Jay,
Jerome Karabel,

Theda Skocpol,
Sharon Zukin

Theory and Society is an undogmatic bi-monthly journal of the social sciences, produced by a worldwide fellowship of scholars who seek, through synthesis of sociology and marxism, to deepen understanding of the 'present as history' and to renew critical social theory. It is published for critical sociologists, independent marxists, and for other unpacified intellectuals.

Theory and Society works to keep sociology and marxism open to one another, seeking to stimulate and to husband social theory's great traditions. Preserving the viable works of Max Weber, Emile Durkheim, and Karl Marx, we also develop them in creative directions. Rather than the partisan of some special theory, then, Theory and Society is the guardian of a larger theoretic culture. Subsidized neither by professional associations, universities, nor private benefactors, Theory and Society has grown only because it publishes work of excellence and interest to its readers.

A bi-lingual journal for publications in academic philosophy and for theoretical work in other fields of interest to philosophers.

Academics in the humanities and social sciences routinely complain that there is no rapid dissemination of informed and informative opinion concerning publications in their fields. This is doubly unfortunate when more books than ever before are being published. Philosophers in particular need to be informed not only of work that is strictly philosophical but also of work which is primarily theoretical in nature in such areas as law, psychology, sociology, literary criticism, physics, medicine, linguistics and classical studies. C.P.R./R.C.C.P. is the first journal based in North America to aim systematically to meet that need.
