The Middle East Studies Association of North America, Inc.

This association was founded in 1966 in order to promote high standards of scholarship in the field of Middle Eastern studies and to facilitate communication among scholars through meetings and publications. In addition to sponsoring the Journal, which is published for the Association by the Cambridge University Press. MESA publishes a Bulletin periodically, holds an Annual Conference, and provides other professional services for its members from time to time. Enquiries concerning membership, which includes subscription to the International Journal of Middle East Studies, should be addressed to: Headquarters and Secretariat, Middle East Studies Association, New York University, Washington Square, New York, N.Y. 10003, U.S.A. Fees are as follows: Fellows and associates, $30.00; students, $12.50; institutions, $40.00.

British Society for Middle Eastern Studies

The Society was founded in 1973 in order to encourage and promote the study in the United Kingdom of the Middle Eastern cultural region from the end of classical antiquity and the rise of Islam. In addition to sponsoring the Journal, it publishes a Bulletin in conjunction with Mansell Information/Publishing Ltd., holds an annual conference, and hopes to provide other professional services for its members. Enquiries concerning membership should be addressed to the Secretary, Dr. D. Hopwood, St. Antony's College, Oxford. Annual subscriptions are as follows: fellows £5.00; individual members £3.00; corporate members £25.00; students £1.00. These subscriptions do not include subscription to the International Journal of Middle East Studies, but fellows and members may subscribe to the Journal at a special rate of two thirds of the present subscription price.

Notes for Contributors

Contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editor, Professor Stanford J. Shaw, The Gustave E. von Grunebaum Center for Near Eastern Studies, University of California, Los Angeles, California 90024, U.S.A. Submission of an article implies that it has not been published or is not being considered for publication elsewhere. In the interests of authors, copyright is normally assigned to the Cambridge University Press. Articles in English should conform with the Journal's transliteration system. Articles will be accepted and published in French and German, with the authors expected to follow the transliteration systems normally used in those languages. Care will be taken with manuscripts submitted, but the Editor cannot accept responsibility for any loss or damage which may take place. Short summaries should be included with every manuscript. Contributors should keep at least one copy for use in correcting proofs. Contributors of articles and review articles receive 50 offprints. Extra copies may be purchased according to an agreed scale of charges.
