

THE MIDDLE EAST STUDIES ASSOCIATION OF NORTH AMERICA, INC. (MESA) was organized in 1966 by a group of American and Canadian scholars on the Middle East to

- promote high standards of scholarship and instruction in this area;
- facilitate communication among scholars through meetings and publications; and
- foster cooperation among persons and organizations concerned with the scholarly study of the Middle East.

MESA focuses on the study of the Middle East since the rise of Islam, principally from the viewpoint of the humanities and the social sciences. Its membership is international.

Persons of scholarly training and/or achievement in Middle East studies are eligible to become Full Members ($50, Retired $25, Joint $60). Other categories of membership are Associate ($50), Student ($25), and Institutional ($500). Each membership is on a calendar-year basis. Membership includes subscriptions to the International Journal of Middle East Studies, the MESA Bulletin, and the MESA Newsletter. Application forms may be obtained from the MESA Secretariat, Department of Oriental Studies, University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona 85721, (602) 621-5850.

MESA is a nonprofit corporation with tax-exempt status. Contributions to the Association are deductible under both U.S. Federal and British income tax regulations.

Muslim Preacher in the Modern World A Jordanian Case Study in Comparative Perspective Richard T. Antoun

Richard Antoun documents and exemplifies the single most important institution for the propagation of Islam, the Friday congregational sermon delivered in the mosque by the Muslim preacher. In his analysis of various sermons collected in a Jordanian village and in Amman, the author vividly demonstrates the scope of the Islamic corpus (beliefs, ritual norms, and ethics), its flexibility with respect to current social issues and specific social structures, and its capacity for interpretation and manipulation.

Spiritual Body and Celestial Earth From Mazdean Iran to Shī'ite Iran

Henry Corbin

Translated from the French by Nancy Pearson

"Spiritual Body and Celestial Earth is one of the most important and groundbreaking works of Corbin whose original French version . . . revealed a whole domain and 'climate' of the spiritual universe of the Persian sages and mystics." —Religious Studies

Crusade and Mission

European Approaches toward the Muslims

Benjamin Z. Kedar

"[Professor Kedar] is concerned with the essential dilemma the Christians faced, should they attempt to convert the infidels or exterminate them by the sword, or was it possible to combine these two approaches and if so how? Amongst those who wrote on the subject, there was no question that Islam should be attacked or undermined; it was not the overall objective which was under discussion but rather the methods which should be used. . . . Professor Kedar has produced a superbly researched discussion of these attitudes." —History
