

A symposium on Edmund Burke will be held at Georgetown University in Washington, D. C., on December 6-7, 1963, as part of the celebration of the 175th anniversary of the founding of Georgetown. Speakers will include Peter J. Stanlis (University of Detroit), "Edmund Burke in the Twentieth Century"; Ross J. S. Hoffman (Fordham University), "Edmund Burke as a Practical Politician"; Francis Canavan, S. J. (America),

"Edmund Burke and the Process of Social Change"; and C. P. Ives (The Sun), "Edmund Burke and the Legal Order of Society." Scholars in history, political science and English will serve on several panels to discuss the four major papers. Anyone wishing to attend should write to Professor Riley Hughes, Anniversary House, Georgetown University, Washington 7, D.C.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

The Social Science Research Council's annual announcement describing fellowships and grants to be awarded to individuals in 1963-64 was ready for distribution in early September. It lists the following programs which are continued without major changes: Research Training Fellowships, predoctoral and postdoctoral; Faculty Research Fellowships; Grants-in-Aid of Research; Fellowships in Political Theory and Legal Philosophy; Grants for Research on American Governmental and Legal Processes.

International Conference Travel Grants are again offered to social scientists in the United States for travel to conferences outside North America.

Under joint sponsorship with the American Council of Learned Societies, grants are offered to mature scholars for research in the social sciences and humanities on certain foreign areas. Grants for research on Africa South of the Sahara, on contemporary China, on Latin America, and on the Near and Middle East (including North Africa) are administered by the Social Science Research Council; while those for Asian Studies and for Slavic and East European Studies are administered by the American Council of Learned Societies, to which correspondence relating to the latter programs should be directed.

Inquiries and requests for the detailed announcement when issued may be addressed to the Social Science Research Council, Fellowships and Grants, 230 Park Avenue, New York 17, New York. Applications for some categories of awards will be due not later than November 1.

The Michigan State Board of Education has approved in the political science department of Western Michigan University the establishment of an institute of public affairs designed to promote research, scholarship and education in all areas of concern to political scientists and the university for the community enlightenment. THOMAS F. THOMPSON, formerly of the political science staff of the University of Wisconsin and now assistant professor of political science at Western Michigan University has been selected as the institute's first director.

The formation of a department of political science at Northern Michigan University under the chairmanship of associate professor MIODRAG GEORGEVICH has been announced. Other members of the department are JOSEPH WILLARD, associate professor and Miss SHARON BOEN, assistant professor.

The annual award of the Western Political Science Association for the outstanding Ph.D. dissertation written during the previous three years on western government and politics was given jointly to MARK W. CANNON, chairman of the Brigham Young University department of political science, and RICHARD A. COOLEY, head of the research center, Alaskan Natural Resources.

M. GLENN ABERNATHY, associate professor of political science, University of South Carolina was awarded the University's Russell Award for Creative Research, for 1963.

CHARLES W. ANDERSON has received the Steiger award for outstanding teaching at the University of Wisconsin.

WILLIAMS G. ANDREWS, assistant professor of government at Tufts University, is spending the 1962-1963 year in France as a Fulbright research scholar.

JOHN A. ARMSTRONG, professor at the University of Wisconsin, is on leave in 1963-64 for research in Europe on a grant from the American Council of Learned Societies.

M. MARGARET BALL, Ralph Emerson professor of political science at Wellesley College, has been appointed dean of the Women's College at Duke University.

WILLIAM B. BALLIS, professor of political science and director of the center for Russian studies at the University of Michigan will be on research and sabbatical leave from June, 1963 to September, 1964. During his leave, Professor George Kish of the department of geography will serve as acting director of the center.

ERWIN W. BARD, professor of political science at Brooklyn college of the City University of New York, will be on leave for the academic year 1963-64 in Lima, Peru as senior adviser in public administration with the institute of public administration (New York) under an AID contract.

LAURENCE R. BIRNS has received an appointment as assistant professor at Hamilton College for the year 1963-64.

JOSEPH E. BLACK, chairman of the department of government, Miami University, has been granted a leave of absence for two years. During that period, he will serve as professor of political science at the University of Ibadan in Nigeria. He will also give a series of lectures at Makerere College in Uganda and the Royal College in Nairobi, Kenya.

BERNARD C. BORNING, professor and chairman of political science at the University of Idaho, is on leave during 1963-64 on a Fulbright lectureship at Seoul National University and Yonsei University, Korea.

BETTY B. BURCH, associate professor of government at Tufts University, who will be on sabbatical leave during 1963-64, has been appointed a scholar in the Radcliffe institute for independent study.

WILLIAM A. CASTOR of Middlebury College will be teaching in Ethiopia in 1963-64 under a Fulbright grant.

MARK CATES has been appointed assistant professor at Wisconsin State College, Stevens Point.

JOHN W. CHAPMAN, associate professor political science, University of Pittsburgh will be on leave of absence for the academic year 1963-64 as visiting professor and adviser to the department of political science at the University of Bombay.

HAROLD W. CHASE of Minnesota will be visiting professor of public law at Columbia for the academic year, 1963-64.

DAVID R. DERGE, Indiana University, was selected by Sigma Delta Chi for its Brown Derby Award, presented annually to the most popular professor on campus.

GUY H. DODGE, professor of political science, Brown University, has received a Fulbright award for research in Paris for 1963-64, where he will be on sabbatical leave.

MARION E. DORO, assistant professor of government at Connecticut college, has been appointed by the University of Chicago to a one-year teaching and research post at Makerere University College in Kampala, Uganda, beginning July 1. She will be on leave from Connecticut College for the 1963-64 year.

LEON D. ERSTEIN, professor at the University of Wisconsin, is on research leave in 1963-64 on grants from the Rockefeller Foundation and the S.S.R.C.

KUANG-HUAN FAN, recently completing his doctoral degree at New York University, has been appointed visiting assistant professor of political science at the University of Idaho for 1963-64.

GEORGE FEAVER has been appointed assistant professor in the department of political science, Mount Holyoke College.

RICHARD FENNO of the University of Rochester has been granted a Rockefeller fellowship for 1963-64.

GEORGE FISCHER served as exchange professor in Moscow and Leningrad in 1962-63.

LEWIS A. FROMAN, assistant professor at the University of Wisconsin, is on leave in 1963-64 as a Congressional fellow.

JURGEN K. GEBHARDT, North Atlantic Treaty Organization visiting professor of political science from the University of Munich, who has been in the department at Western Reserve University during the spring semester, will remain for an additional year.

ERNST HAAS, professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) will be on sabbatical leave during the coming 1963-64 year.

WILBUR W. HITCHCOCK, foreign service officer, has returned from Bangkok, Thailand, to the Department of State, Washington, to chair the foreign service institute's introductory in-service seminar on Southeast Asia.

JOHN H. HODGSON, a candidate for the doctorate at Harvard University, has been appointed acting instructor at Yale University.

HOLFORD HOSKINS, senior specialist in international relations at the Library of Congress legislative reference service, will serve as visiting professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) during the coming 1963-64 year.

FREDERICK C. IRION of the University of New Mexico has been elected chairman of the social sciences section of the Southwestern and Rocky Mountain division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science for 1963-64.

CLAUDIUS O. JOHNSON, professor emeritus of political science at Washington State University, will serve as a visiting professor at Montana State University, Missoula, during 1963-64.

KARL LAMB is on leave from the University of Michigan for 1963-64 to serve as assistant to the chancellor of the University of California at Santa Cruz.

KENNETH P. LANDON has been appointed associate dean of the school of language and area studies, foreign service institute, Department of State, Washington. He will direct the institute's seven area training programs, provided to officers and employees of the Department, the U. S. information agency, the agency for international development (AID) and other departments and agencies, before they take up their duties overseas.

EUGENE LEE, associate professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley), has been awarded a departmental Rockefeller foundation overseas grant and will be engaged in teaching and research in Dar-el-Salaam, Tanganyika, for the year beginning in September 1963.

GEORGE LENCZOWSKI, professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) has been granted a sabbatical leave for the 1963-64 academic year.

WILLIAM O. LEWIS has been reappointed visiting instructor of political science at the University of Idaho for 1963-64.

LEON LINDBERG, assistant professor at the University of Wisconsin, will be on leave in 1963-64 for research in Western Europe on grants from the Rockefeller Foundation and the American Philosophical society.

LESLIE LIPSON has been awarded a Rockefeller Foundation grant and will be on leave from the department of political science at the University of California, (Berkeley), during the 1963-64 year.

ALPHEUS THOMAS MASON, McCormick professor of jurisprudence at Princeton, received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at the June commencement exercises of the Dickinson School of Law.

JOHN DICKSON MAY, a candidate for the doctorate at the University of California (Berkeley) has been appointed acting instructor at Yale University.

ROBERT J. MCNEILL of Purdue University has been awarded the Democratic National Committee faculty fellowship for 1963-64 by the National center for education in politics.

EDWARD MCWHINNEY, professor of international law at the University of Toronto, Canada, will join the faculty of the department of political science at the University of California beginning in September, 1964.

RAYMOND A. MOORE of the department of international studies at the University of South Carolina spent the 1962-63 academic year at the University of Punjab, Lahore, Pakistan on a Fulbright grant.

NORMAN D. PALMER, professor of political science at the University of Pennsylvania has recently been appointed to the India Council of the Asia Society; also to the nominating and program committees of the association for Asian studies.

ROBERT J. PITCHELL, Indiana University, is on leave as legislative assistant to Senator Birch E. Bayh, Jr.

JAMES W. PROTHRO of the University of North Carolina will be on leave for the 1963-64 school year under a grant from the S.S.R.C.

FRED W. RIGGS, Indiana University, will be acting director of the University's international development research center in the absence of JOHN P. LEWIS, who has been appointed to the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

JAMES M. ROHERTY, associate professor in Mount Mary College's department of history and political science, will take a year's leave of absence to fill an appointment as visiting associate professor of government at William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Virginia for the 1963-64 academic year.

NAOMI ROSENBAUM has been appointed as a temporary instructor for a year's duration in the department of political science at Brown University.

JOSEPH A. ROTHSCHILD will be on sabbatical leave from Columbia during the academic year 1963-64.

RONALD M. SCHNEIDER of the office of research and analysis of the State Department has accepted an appointment as visiting associate professor at Columbia for the year 1963-64 to give work in the Latin American institute.

LESTER G. SELIGMAN, associate professor at the University of Oregon, has a leave of absence, from July, 1963, for study in Israel under a grant from the S.S.R.C. and to serve as visiting professor of political science and consultant to the Weizmann Institute of science, in Rehovot, Israel.

CURRIN V. SHIELDS, professor and head of the government department, University of Arizona, will also serve as acting director of the University's institute of government research, 1963-64.

SAUL SILVERMAN has been appointed acting assistant professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

GLENN SNYDER will continue to serve during 1963-64 as visiting associate professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley).

PETER SPERLICH will become acting assistant professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) beginning with the fall semester, 1963.

PETER A. TOMA, associated professor of government, University of Arizona, received a grant from the Social Science Foundation and has been on leave for the 1962-1963 academic year. He returned for the second summer session, 1963.

JAMES TOWNSEND has been appointed acting assistant professor at the University of California (Berkeley).

ALAN F. WESTIN of Columbia will be on research leave for the year 1963-64.

JAMES R. WOODWORTH has been appointed acting chairman of the department of government at Miami University.

STAFF APPOINTMENTS

JOHN J. AGRIA has been appointed instructor in political science at Alma College, Alma, Michigan.

HAYWOOD ALKER has been appointed instructor at Yale University.

JOHN AMBLER will become acting instructor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) beginning with the fall semester 1963.

IVAN AVAKUMOVIC has been appointed associate professor of political science at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada.

MORLEY AYEARST has received promotion to the rank of full professor of government and has been appointed chairman of the department of government and international relations in Washington Square College, New York University.

CHESTER W. BAIN, formerly professor and head, department of political science, University of South Carolina, has been appointed professor of political science, Emory University.

FRANK L. BAIRD, formerly of the University of Texas, has accepted appointment as assistant professor of government at Arlington State College, Arlington, Texas.

ROBERT J. BATSON of Western Michigan University has been promoted to associate professor.

DAVIS A. BINGHAM, formerly of the bureau of business and public research, University of Arizona, has accepted an appointment as associate professor of government and research specialist, institute of government research, University of Arizona.

THOMAS C. BLAISDELL, JR., has retired as professor of political science at the University of California (Berkeley) but will be reappointed for the 1963-64 academic year.

L. FRANKLIN BLITZ, JR., formerly assistant professor, bureau of public administration, University of South Carolina, has been appointed to the University of Pittsburgh Nigerian Project.

WILLIAM J. BLOCK has been promoted to the rank of professor at the University of North Carolina at Raleigh.

ALLAN D. BLOOM, formerly of Yale University, has been appointed assistant professor of government at Cornell.

EDGAR M. BOTTOMBE has been appointed instructor in the government department at Boston University.

DON R. BOWEN, who will receive his Ph.D. at Yale University, has been appointed assistant professor at Western Reserve University.

ROBERT L. BRADFORD, instructor of government at the University of New Hampshire has been appointed assistant professor of political science at Susquehanna University.

CECIL BRETT has been appointed associate professor and director of Asian studies at Monmouth College.

HENRY BRETTON has been promoted to the rank of professor at the University of Michigan.

BERNARD E. BROWN, formerly of Vanderbilt University, has been appointed associate profes-