

THE ETHICS OF SCHOLARLY PUBLISHING: A SPECIAL ISSUE

A paper in a refereed physics journal has been attacked as bad science and a medium for anti-feminist prejudice. This controversy raises questions about peer review and the publisher's responsibility when the system goes wrong. In the July issue of Scholarly Publishing, publishers and scientists debate the issue and offer solutions to the problem.

Le but principal de l'Association canadienne de linguistique est de promouvoir l'étude de la linguistique au Canada. La cotisation, qui donne droit à l'abonnement à La Revue canadienne de linguistique, ainsi qu'à la soumission de communications au congrès annuel, est de 40$ par année pour les membres ordinaires et institutionnels et de 12$ pour les étudiant(e)s qui peuvent faire la preuve de leur statut. On envoie la cotisation aux Presses de l'Université de Toronto Inc., 5201 rue Dufferin, Downsview (Ontario) M3H 5T8. La publication de cette revue est rendue possible par les subventions du Conseil du Canada.

The principal aim of the Canadian Linguistic Association is to promote the study of linguistics in Canada. Membership fees, which include a subscription to The Canadian Journal of Linguistics, as well as the right to give papers at the annual general meeting of the Association, are $40 a year for regular and institutional members, and $12 for student members with proof of student status. Fees should be sent to the University of Toronto Press Inc., 5201 Dufferin St., Downsview, Ontario M3H 5T8. Publication of this journal is made possible by grants from the Canada Council.
