

The Greek World

479-323 BC

SIMON HORNBLOWER

This is the first volume to appear in an important new series edited by Fergus Millar, called Classical Civilizations.

The Greek World 479 – 323 BC covers the history of the ancient Greeks from the Persian Wars to the death of Alexander the Great. The author's aim is to do justice to all the areas of the Mediterranean world in which Greek culture flourished in the fifth and fourth centuries BC, such as Cyrene, Egypt, Asia Minor, Macedon, Italy and Sicily, as well as Athens, Sparta and other great city-states of Greece proper.

New archaeological and epigraphical evidence is fully drawn upon to enable the book to provide a fresh and comprehensive account of this extraordinary period of Greek civilization.
