The International African Institute • L'Institut Africain International

The International African Institute (IAI) was founded in 1926 in London as the International Institute of African Languages and Cultures. Over the years, the IAI has played a pioneering role in promoting international research, conferences and publications in the fields of African studies, notably anthropology, culture and languages. Publication include the prestigious international journal, Africa; the Africa Bibliography, scholarly books, the International African Library series, the African Arguments series; edited volumes of seminar proceedings; and the Readings in... series (volumes for use in university teaching). The institute is a registered charity and a company limited by guarantee.

L'Institut Africain International a pour but de promouvoir les travaux de recherche, les conférences et les publications relatives aux sociétés, aux cultures et aux langues africaines.
