Polar Record (ISSN 0032-2474) is published four times yearly — in January, April, July, and October — the four issues making a volume. First published in January 1931, Polar Record appeared twice yearly until July 1954 and three times yearly until September 1987. Scholarly contributions are invited on virtually all subjects of polar interest. For information on contributions, see 'Instructions for authors,' in Polar Record 30 (172): 72–74, January 1994, or write The Editor, Polar Record, Scott Polar Research Institute, University of Cambridge, Lensfield Road, Cambridge CB2 1ER, UK.
