AFRICAN STUDIES

Unmasking the State

Making Guinea Modern
Mike McGovern

"McGovern artfully weaves an edifying tapestry of the demystification programs launched by Sékou Touré in the 1960s among Loma-speaking people of Guinea, West Africa."—David Berliner, University of Brussels

PAPER $29.00

The Predicament of Blackness

Postcolonial Ghana and the Politics of Race
Jemima Pierre

"This book is in a class by itself. It is not only a welcome addition to the field but will in fact inspire a new generation of African Studies scholarship that is more attentive to the cultural practices of race."
—Bayo Holsey, Duke University

PAPER $30.00

FROM AMSTERDAM UNIVERSITY PRESS

From Civilians to Soldiers and from Soldiers to Civilians

Mobilization and Demobilization in Sudan

Saskia Baas

This study investigates the processes of mobilization and demobilization of fighters from all factions during the long, drawn out civil war in Sudan.

The Equality of Believers

Protestant Missionaries and the Racial Politics of South Africa
Richard Elphick

$40.00 | CLOTH | RECONSIDERATIONS IN SOUTHERN AFRICAN HISTORY

The Equality of

Believers explores the pivotal role played by Protestant missionaries and their teachings in shaping South Africa's history from the beginning of the nineteenth century through 1960. The most ambitious work yet from this renowned historian, Richard Elphick's book reveals the deep religious roots of racial ideas and initiatives that have so profoundly shaped the history of South Africa.

Polygraphies

Francophone Women Writing Algeria
Alison Rice

$24.50 | PAPER

Coinciding with the fiftieth anniversary of Algeria's independence, Polygraphies is significant and timely in its focus on autobiographical writings by seven of the most prominent francophone Algerian women writers from a variety of personal perspectives and backgrounds, including Maïssa Bey, Hélène Cixous, Assia Djebar, and Malika Mokeddem.

After Apartheid

Reinventing South Africa?
Edited by Ian Shapiro and Kahreen Tebeau

$24.50 | PAPER
South Africa's definitive and peaceful transition from apartheid is often cited as a model for others to follow. Yet enormous challenges remain. In this volume, major scholars chronicle South Africa's achievements and challenges since the transition. The contributions in this book, all previously unpublished, represent the state of the art in the study of South African politics, economics, law, and social policy.

The Department of Africana Studies at Brooklyn College of the City University of New York seeks to appoint an historian of the African Diaspora at the rank of assistant professor in fall 2013. This is a tenure track position. The successful candidate will specialize in the areas of African History and people of African descent in the Americas (United States, Caribbean and Latin America) and should be able to teach and develop chronological as well as thematic advanced undergraduate and graduate courses in both fields, particularly in her/his areas of interest. This is a joint line with the Department of History and it is expected that the candidate will develop and teach upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in that department. Participation in the core curriculum is expected. All appointments are subject to financial availability.

Ph.D. required at time of appointment. Specialty is open, but the department, in cooperation with other units at the college, is interested in cross-cultural and interdisciplinary research.

CUNY offers faculty a competitive compensation and benefits package covering health insurance, pension and retirement benefits, paid parental leave, and savings programs. We also provide mentoring and support for research, scholarship, and publication as part of our commitment to ongoing faculty professional development.
