Statement of Purpose

The Canadian Journal of Law & Jurisprudence serves as a forum for special and general jurisprudence and legal philosophy. It publishes articles that address the nature of law, that engage in philosophical analysis or criticism of legal doctrine, that examine the form and nature of legal or judicial reasoning, that investigate issues concerning the ethical aspects of legal practice, and that study (from a philosophical perspective) concrete legal issues facing contemporary society. The journal does not use case notes, nor does it publish articles focussing on issues particular to the laws of a single nation.

Cover: The motto of this Journal is alis volat propriis. What this motto says is that we fly on our own wings. What it has meant was our being not only self-sustaining, but also going wide with regard to what we view as jurisprudentially attractive and worthwhile as philosophical discovery. The people at Cambridge University Press observed that CJLJ has been a successful journal in the field of legal philosophy and they wanted in on the flight. Our prospects have opened and our wings will spread.

Beginning with Volume 28 the Canadian Journal of Law & Jurisprudence has been published jointly by Cambridge University Press and the Faculty of Law, Western University.

The journal is included in the Cambridge Core service and can be found at cambridge.org/cjlj.
