

FPS is most grateful for gifts of £20 and over, totalling £10,531, as well as many smaller ones, between February 1 and June 15 1980, listed on this and the next page.

Oryx 100% Fund

Donations	£
Executive Travel (Holidays) Ltd	100
M. Bellis	30
M.J. Gotts	25
S. Rostron	25
D. Dolphin	20
V.P. Shahbazian	20
Earmarked
Conder Conservation Trust, for primate study in Bangladesh	1000
St Katharine's Fund, for East African Wildlife Society	600
Conder Conservation Trust, for golden lion tamarin	500
E.M. Ellis Trust, for gibbons in Sarawak	200
Mrs B.W. Cronin, for rhinos and elephants	40

Grants

The following grants have been made from the Oryx 100% Fund:

- £500 to Robin C. Best for equipment for a manatee project in Manaus, Brazil;
- £500 to Kenneth Green for a census of the golden lion tamarin in Brazil's Poco das Antas National Park;
- £500 to Anthony B. Rylands for a study of the status and distribution of the golden lion tamarin in Una, Bahia, Brazil;
- £375 to Imre de Boroviczeny to determine conservation needs in the Azores;
- £250 to Karen Susan Ross to study the ecology of sable antelope, elephant and buffalo in Kenya's Shimba Hills Reserve;
- £200 to Clare I. Littlejohn and J.R. Hurst of the Cambridge Sarawak Expedition to study the behaviour of rehabilitated gibbons in the Semongoh Game Reserve;
- £135 to Malagasy's Direction des Eaux et Forêts for equipment in nature reserves;
- £100 to the African Wildlife Leadership Foundation for equipment for Uganda;
- £100 to Anthony B. Rylands for golden lion tamarin study;
- £100 to Dr C.A. Spinage for equipment for the Game Guard Training Centre, Bangui, Central African Republic;
- £75 to the Aldabra appeal of the Seychelles Islands Foundation;
- £56 to Professor G.M.O. Maloiy for a study of the black rhino in Kenya;
- £50 to Sharon McGladdery for a study of fish in the Royal Chitwan National Park, Nepal.