

The British Society for the History of Science

THE objects of the Society are to further the study of the history of science by holding meetings for the reading and discussion of papers and by facilitating the publication of relevant material. The British Journal for the History of Science is published by the Society as its official organ.

There will generally be a summer meeting, a winter meeting, and an Easter meeting of the Society. Additional meetings are arranged for specific occasions such as important anniversaries.

Membership, which includes a subscription to The British Journal for the History of Science, is open to all persons approved by the Council of the Society and elected at an ordinary meeting. The annual subscription is £5.00 ($15.00) or, for Students, £3.00 ($9.00), 1974; the 1975 subscription will be £6.00.

Membership: Applications for membership should be made on a form that is available from The Assistant Secretary, The British Society for the History of Science, 47 Belgrave Square, London SW1X 8QX.

THE BRITISH JOURNAL FOR THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE

THE Journal is published three times a year, in March, July, and November, and the three parts published in any one year constitute a volume.

Editorial matters: Papers for inclusion in the Journal should be submitted to the Hon. Editor, Dr Robert Fox, Department of History, University of Lancaster, Bailrigg, Lancaster LA1 4YG, from whom instructions may be obtained concerning the presentation and documentation of papers. All communications on editorial matters, and books for review, should be addressed to the Hon. Editor.

Advertising: Particulars about advertising in the Journal may be obtained from The Advertisement Manager, The Institute of Physics, 1 Lowther Gardens, Prince Consort Road, London SW7 2AB.

Orders and back issues: Orders for the Journal and inquiries about back issues should be addressed to Headley Brothers Ltd, Ashford, Kent TN24 8HH, who will also supply information about binding costs. Claims for missing copies should be made to Headley Brothers within six months of publication.
