LETTERS TO ASA MEMBERS

W.H. WHITELEY MEMORIAL FUND

In response to suggestions from many friends and associates of the late Professor Wilfred H. Whiteley, it has been decided to set up a Fund in his memory, with the aim of encouraging African Studies.

A number of suggestions have been made as to the form that such a memorial should take, including an Annual Prize of books for an outstanding student in African Studies, a scholarship for East-African students and a memorial grant for students in special need. Some consideration was given to other suggestions including a memorial lecture and a literary competition, but for a variety of reasons these do not seem to be practical propositions. The final choice will, of course, depend upon the total amount subscribed.

We thought that you might like to make a contribution to such a fund. We would also be grateful if you could bring this appeal to the attention of any other individuals or institutions who you feel might wish to be associated with such a memorial.

If you have any further suggestions as to the form the Memorial might take we would be happy to receive them.

Contributions should be sent to either Dr. Hazel Carter or Dr. Joan Maw at the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London, London WC1E 7HP, cheques being made payable to the School of Oriental and African Studies.
