Interest Groups are an ideal place to network with colleagues in your specialty or areas of interest. Each group has a web portal and a members' email listserv, which is used to promote topical dialogue as well as to discuss administrative matters. Groups may sponsor seminars and workshops, publish newsletters, or host activities at ASIL's Annual Meeting.

Interest Group participation is free to all ASIL Members!

Pinochet's Legacy Reassessed

Ingrid Wuerth

731

This article analyzes developments in the customary international law of immunity since the House of Lords' famous rulings in Pinochet. Subsequent decisions have limited the potential impact of Pinochet in human rights cases involving state and status-based immunities. Under customary international law as it stands today, and contrary to conventional wisdom, there is no human rights or international crimes exception to the functional immunity of current and former officials.

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The American Society of International Law was organized in 1906 “to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice.” Society membership is open to all persons of any nationality and profession who are interested in its objectives. Information about membership and sponsorship programs is available online at www.asil.org. The Society is incorporated by an Act of Congress approved September 20, 1950 (64 Stat. 869).

PROGRAM OF WORK

In addition to publishing the American Journal of International Law, the ASIL offers a variety of information resources and participation opportunities for members as well as nonmembers. These programs, best viewed at www.asil.org, include publications such as International Legal Materials and Studies in Transnational Legal Policy; electronic bulletins such as ASIL Insights, International Law In Brief, and IL.post; events such as the Annual Meeting and other gatherings in Washington, D.C., and around the world; outreach programs for the judicial sector, the media, and other audiences; an array of resources on the ASIL Web site, such as the Electronic Information System for International Law (EISIL) and the Guide to Electronic Resources for International Law (ERG); and opportunities to be part of an active network bridging expert and nonexpert communities associated with the development of international law.

PHILANTHROPY AND THE SOCIETY

The ASIL accomplishes much of its work through charitable support. The Society is grateful to its many members who contribute to the annual fund and the endowment, the foundations whose grants fund special programs, and the law firms, publishers, universities, and others that sponsor ASIL activity. The Society is particularly honored to receive contributions through the 21st century campaign and Patrons program and to be included in our members' estate plans through the ASIL Heritage Circle. We recognize these contributors below.

AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The views expressed in the articles, editorial comments, book reviews, and all other contributions to the AJIL are those of the individual authors and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Board of Editors or the American Society of International Law.

SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPTS

The American Journal of International Law (AJIL) invites submission of manuscripts on international law subjects. Its primary focus is on questions of public international law, including closely related issues of domestic law. It generally does not publish manuscripts focused on private or commercial law or on comparative or foreign law, including the internal law of the European Union.

The AJIL will not consider submissions whose content has been, or will be, published before it appears in this journal.

The AJIL does not require exclusive submissions. Priority consideration will, however, be accorded where the author states that the submission is exclusive for a specified period of at least six weeks and commits to accept an offer of publication within the specified time period. Authors should bear in mind that, as a professionally juried journal, the AJIL is rarely if ever able to make offers of publication in response to requests for expedited review within the time limits typically fixed by other journals that have made offers of publication.

Submissions should be in electronic form and should be transmitted as attachments to e-mail messages addressed to ajil@asil.org. Alternatively, a CD-ROM may be mailed to AJIL, American Society of International Law, 2223 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20008-2864, USA.

The AJIL currently uses Word 2007, but can convert manuscripts created in other word processing programs. Please specify the program used.

Format and style guidelines: All manuscripts should be double-spaced in 12-point Times New Roman type; these formatting requirements cover all text, quotations, and footnotes.

- The maximum length for lead articles is 100 letter-sized pages, formatted as indicated.
- The maximum length for "Current Developments" and "Notes and Comments" submissions is 30 letter-sized pages, formatted as indicated.

The AJIL generally conforms to the footnote style of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010) and the Chicago Manual of Style (16th ed. 2010). For further information on AJIL style and formatting guidelines, see the AJIL Style Guide, available online at www.asil.org/ajil\_style\_guide.pdf.

Book reviews are by invitation; however, you may suggest books for review to the AJIL Book Review Office, 2223 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20008-2864, USA. Books for review should be sent to the same address.
