The Life and Times of Menelik II

---

Ethiopia, 1844–1913

---

Harold G. Marcus

---

Of all the major African countries only Ethiopia successfully defeated late nineteenth-century European imperialism. To a large extent this was due to the political and military genius of Menelik II. This study of the Emperor's long reign helps to explain Ethiopia's survival; it also reveals Menelik as the man who carried through the programmes of expansion and modernization that created Ethiopia today. £5.25 Oxford Studies in African Affairs

Gods and Heroes

Oral Tradition of the Gurage of Ethiopia

---

Translated and edited by William A. Shack and Habte-Mariam Marcos

---

This collection of praise chants to gods and warrior-heroes stresses the sociological and literary themes through which are manifested the underlying assumptions the Gurage hold about man, nature, the spirit world, and the universe of things. It also illustrates the range of stylistic creativity in Gurage literary prose. £3.75 Oxford Library of African Literature

---

Upland Kenya Wild Flowers

---

A. D. Q. Agnew

Although written principally for those parts of Kenya above 3,000 feet altitude, it will be found useful throughout the country and in neighbouring Uganda and Tanzania, including the major game parks. Clear keys are given to the 66 families and about 3,000 species described, of which over 800 are illustrated with line drawings. £7.75

---

The Dinka and their Songs

---

Francis Mading Deng

---

By relating a wide variety of songs to the social context of which they are a part, this book of Dinka poetry both records an oral literature now threatened with extinction and gives the reader an intimate association with Dinka social organization, the basic values of their society, and the tensions and conflicts inherent in their competition for resources. £6.50 Oxford Library of African Literature

---

East Africa

---

Its People and Resources

---

Edited by W. T. W. Morgan

---

This revised edition includes essays by experts on, among other subjects, the agriculture, climate, commerce, demography, industry, peoples, and vegetation of the three East African countries. Third edition, paperback £6.50 OUP East Africa
