industry unbound

the inside story of privacy, data, and corporate power

Ari Ezra Waldman

Hardback | £20 / $24.95

Privacy law isn't working.

Waldman's groundbreaking work explains why, showing how tech companies manipulate us, our behavior, and our law.

'How did privacy policies become licenses to spy? ...

This brilliant book is a must-read for understanding the failures of contemporary privacy laws, and how they might evolve toward more robust protections.'

Frank Pasquale, Professor of Law, Brooklyn Law School, and author of The Black Box Society and The New Laws of Robotics

'Ari Waldman peels back the curtain on internal privacy practices at the most powerful tech companies to reveal an alarming trend ... It is essential reading for anyone who cares about the future of privacy.'

Daniel J. Solove, John Marshall Harlan Research Professor of Law, George Washington University, and author of Understanding Privacy

'There is a path to resistance, and Industry Unbound is its map.'

Ryan Calo, Lane Powell and D. Wayne Gittinger Professor, University of Washington School of Law

Books and Journals from Cambridge University Press

Cambridge have an established and ever expanding academic law list in public and private law subjects crossing books and journals aimed at a global readership.

Particular strengths lie in international law, human rights and transitional justice, transnational and comparative law, jurisprudence, and legal history.

We also publish a growing number of titles with an inter-disciplinary and socio-legal approach.
