LITERATURE AND ITS WRITERS

An Introduction to Fiction, Poetry, and Drama

Ann Charters, University of Connecticut

Samuel Charters

■ new introductory anthology built on the premise that those who write literature offer the most useful perspectives on it ■ includes 162 commentaries, many by the same authors whose stories, poems, and plays appear in the book ■ the most comprehensive selection of fiction in any introduction to literature, chosen by the editor of the best-selling introductory fiction text ■ 77 alphabetically arranged stories and 56 commentaries ■ a gathering of 325 poems and 61 commentaries uniquely emphasizes poets as well as poetic analysis ■ judicious selection of 19 plays and 45 commentaries chosen for student appeal and instructional flexibility ■ 17 writers covered in depth through multiple works and Casebooks of commentaries — more than in any other text ■ innovative apparatus maintains the focus on the writers ■ abundant but unobtrusive instruction in critical thinking, reading, and writing about literature ■ comprehensive Instructor's Manual
