

FUTURE MEETINGS

BI-NATIONAL BRAZILIAN AMERICAN HISTORY MESA REDONDA, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, August 27–29, 1974. Dowling College is projecting this Mesa Redonda at the Arquivo Nacional in Rio de Janeiro. The meeting will focus on The Regency Period (1831–40) in Brazilian History. For information contact the director, Norman Holub, Dowling College, Oakdale, New York 11769.

XLI CONGRESO INTERNACIONAL DE AMERICANISTAS, Mexico City, September 2–7, 1974. The XLI International Congress of Americanists will take place in Mexico City in the National Museum of Anthropology. The deadlines for submission of papers have already passed. Subscription fees to the Congress are: full members $24.00; associate members $16.00; students $8.00. For more information write: Secretaría General, Departamento de Investigaciones Históricas del I.N.A.H., Apartado Postal 5–119, México, D.F., México.

MID-WEST ASSOCIATION FOR LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES, Annual Meeting, DePauw University, October 25–26, 1974. The annual meeting of MALAS will be held at DePauw in Greencastle, Indiana. Professor Kent Mecum will organize the program on The Andean Area. For additional information write to Professor Kent Mecum, DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana 46135.

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION, Fifth Annual Meeting, San Francisco, California, November 14–16, 1974. The tentative program for the next LASA meeting has scheduled the following panels: Growth or Development?—Questions for the 1970's; Power and Piety: The Political Dimension of Religion in Latin America; The Caribbean; Labor and Dependency; Latin American Political and Social Thought; Peasants and the Modernization Process; Venezuela: Is Democracy Institutionalized; Bilingualism and Biculturalism in the United States; and Selected Topics in Latin American Studies. For more information write: Latin American Studies Association, Box 13362, University Station, University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida 32601.

XV INTERAMERICAN CONGRESS OF PSYCHOLOGY, Bogotá, Colombia, December 18–22, 1974. The Interamerican Congresses of Psychology are held regularly with the express purpose of the sharing of research and professional information among psychologists throughout North, Central, and South America. Rubén Ardila is responsible for organizing the program. For information write the Interamerican Society of Psychology, Box 88, UTEP, El Paso, Texas 79968.

VII INTER-AMERICAN SYMPOSIUM FOR LINGUISTICS & LANGUAGE TEACHING, Lima, Peru, January 13–17, 1975. This symposium will focus on the contribution of linguistics to social integration. For information on the program contact: Dr. Mauricio San Martín, Casilla 1156-Correo Central, Lima, Peru.

FUTURE MEETINGS

EUROPEAN LATIN AMERICANIST HISTORIANS, IV meeting, Cologne, West Germany, May or June, 1975. The topic chosen for this meeting is European Emigration to Latin America during the National Period. For information write to Dr. H. Pietschmann, Secretary of the Organizing Committee, Iberische u. Latein-amerikanische Abtlg. des Historischen Seminars, Universität zu Köln, 5 Köln 41, German Federal Republic.

CONGRESSO INTERNACIONAL DAS CIÊNCIAS HISTÓRICAS, São Francisco, Brazil, August 1975. For information write: Professor Michael Mollat, La Sorbonne, 1 rue Bausset, Paris XVe, France.