4th Conference on Ethnicity, Race, and Indigenous Peoples in Latin America and the Caribbean

Conference dates: October 15-17, 2015

About ERIP

This conference is organized by ERIP, the LASA section on Ethnicity, Race, and Indigenous Peoples, in collaboration with Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) and the Latin American and Caribbean Ethnic Studies journal (LACES). ERIP is committed to promoting research, teaching, and the exchange of ideas about the distinctive cultures, racial identities and relations, as well as concerns of subaltern ethnic groups in the region, particularly indigenous peoples and Afro-descendants.

Communities, Circulations, Intersections

evokes the scope of the 2015 ERIP conference. Panel and paper proposals related to this motif, as well as to all topics related to the section's mission and areas of interest in Latin American and Caribbean studies, are welcome and encouraged.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Presenters may propose individual papers, panels or posters on all subjects related to the section's mission and areas of interest in Latin American and Caribbean studies. In particular, the 2015 conference seeks to foster reflections on the involvement of peoples of indigenous and African descent in migrations, the circulation of ideas and practices, and their exchange of resources and commodities in Latin America and the Caribbean, and the challenges and opportunities posed to the heritage and development of these communities.

The deadline to submit proposals is June 15, 2015, 5pm

PIGMENTOCRACIES
Ethnicity, Race, and Color in Latin America
Edward Telles and the Project on Ethnicity and
Race in Latin America (PERLA)

"This book breaks new ground with its rigorous comparative approach, which reveals the variety of Latin American attitudes towards and perceptions of racial difference, and with its systematic use of questionnaire data, which allow many standard ideas about race in Latin American countries to be tested in detail – and confirmed in some cases, but challenged in others. Indispensable reading for all scholars and students of race and ethnicity in Latin America."

— Peter Wade, University of Manchester
320 pages $29.95 paper

THE WORK OF RECOGNITION
Caribbean Colombia and the Postemancipation Struggle for Citizenship
Jason McGraw

"McGraw demonstrates the strong and largely overlooked impact Afro-Colombians had on regional and national history."

— Nancy Appelbaum, Binghamton University
344 pages $34.95 paper

LIBERTY, FRATERNITY, EXILE
Haiti and Jamaica after Emancipation
Matthew J. Smith

"Smith's superb book is a model and argument for thinking and writing differently about Caribbean history . . . The very human stories of journeys and exiles are a lovely, and gripping, part of the study."

— Laurent Dubois, Duke University
424 pages $32.95 paper

FREEDOM'S CHILDREN
The 1938 Labor Rebellion and the Birth of Modern Jamaica
Colin A. Palmer

"Despite the richness and complexity of the story, Palmer manages to tell it in a beautiful, engaging, and flowing narrative style from beginning to end. It is an outstanding achievement, a heroic labor of love, and a fitting monument to the struggles of the Jamaican people."

— Winston James,
University of California, Irvine
432 pages $39.95 paper

PITT LATIN AMERICAN SERIES

For a Proper Home

Housing Rights in the Margins of Urban Chile, 1960-2010

by EDWARD MURPHY

"A work of great historical, ethnographic, and theoretical power. Murphy offers a fresh and fascinating account of the politics of housing on the periphery of Santiago, Chile. Beyond the specific case, this exploration of 'insurgent ownership' will certainly advance theoretical and political understandings of the liberal state, and of the contours of urban citizenship across the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries. A breakthrough in urban anthropology."

City University of New York

PITT LATIN AMERICAN SERIES

Enduring Reform

Progressive Activism and Private Sector Responses in Latin America's Democracies

JEFFREY W. RUBIN & VIVIENNE BENNETT, eds.

"A novel, innovative, and important collection exploring the nuances and complexities of business responses to progressive politics in contemporary Latin America. A masterful collection that shows ways of thinking of businesspeoples' motivations and preferences that go beyond simple economic explanations and crude assumptions about hostility to progressive movements."
