Paul Lafargue and the Founding of French Marxism, 1842-1882

Leslie Derfler

Paul Lafargue, disciple and son-in-law of Karl Marx, was a powerful intellectual and critical to organized political expression of Marxism in France. In this study of his first forty years, Leslie Derfler weaves a seamless web between his intellectual and family history. She provides, for the first time, a lucid and informative study on the interaction of socialism and Marxism, personal history and ideology.

The Rhetoric of Reaction

Perversity, Futility, Jeopardy
Albert O. Hirschman

"A brilliant and beautifully written book. It is breathtakingly simple, yet deep with implications...Hirschman provides a kind of Reader's Guide to Reactionary Culture."

—Stephen Holmes,
University of Chicago

$25.00 cloth / $10.95 paper

Ozone Diplomacy

New Directions for Safeguarding the Planet
Richard Elliot Benedick

"Benedick brings to the art of writing about these historic events the rare combination of insights, prescience, and skill which he brought to his key role in the events themselves."

—Maurice F. Strong, Secretary-General,
1992 United Nations Conference on
Environment and Development
$27.95 cloth / $10.95 paper

The Contested Country

Yugoslav Unity and Communist Revolution, 1919-1953
Aleksa Djilas

"The book is rich in historical data and insights. Djilas...takes a fairly impartial position on a subject which is often discussed with passionate partisanship. The work is especially valuable for its historical background and wealth of detail about the factors which have made the Yugoslav problem what it is today."

—Adam B. Ulam, Harvard University

The Arab World Today

William R. Polk

The Arab World Today, a thoroughly revised and expanded version of earlier editions, including The Arab World of the American Foreign Policy Library covers such recent developments as population growth, industrialization, Egyptian-Israeli peace efforts, the oil market, and recent religious developments.

"Polk has published exactly that solid, illuminating synthesis we have long lacked, and which those studying and acting in public affairs ought to read first about the Arab world."

—Manfred Halpern, Middle East Journal
$34.95 cloth/$14.95 paper

Game Theory

Analysis of Conflict

Roger B. Myerson

Roger Myerson has produced a general introduction to game theory suitable for classroom use or individual study. He presents some of the most important models, solution concepts, and results of noncooperative and cooperative game theory, as well as the methodological principles that have guided the development of the field.

TOWARD A CANADA-QUEBEC UNION
PHILIP RESNICK

At a time when Canada's constitutional arrangement is in utter turmoil, Philip Resnick has come up with a bold and brilliant proposal for a new configuration of Canada's two founding nations. He proposes the establishment of separate parliaments and governments in English Canada and Quebec, to be linked by a new institutional arrangement. He calls for a more open and democratic process of constitutional change that would entail elected constitutional assemblies. He deals also with the two vitally important questions of minority rights and the threat, for all of Canada, of Americanization.

A MEECH LAKE
POST-MORTEM
IS QUEBEC SOVEREIGNTY INEVITABLE?

PIERRE FOURNIER

Pierre Fournier, a supporter of full sovereignty for Quebec, points out that the Meech Lake Constitutional Accord was flawed for both Quebec and English Canada. It offered Quebec too little to satisfy those wanting sovereignty but was largely incompatible with the rest of Canada's vision for the future of the country. While Fournier believes that sovereignty for Quebec has recently become a more realistic option, he shows that many obstacles remain. The response of the rest of Canada to Quebec's new constitutional initiatives, Fournier maintains, will have considerable influence on how far down the road to sovereignty Quebec may choose to travel.

THE NEW ERA OF GLOBAL COMPETITION
STATE POLICY AND MARKET POWER

Edited by DANIEL DRACHE AND MERIC S. GERTLER

The increasing globalization of production and the conservative agenda for market-led growth are dramatically affecting the life of the average Canadian and the choices made by social and economic policy makers. As Daniel Drache, Meric Gertler, and the contributing authors show, the worldwide reorganization of markets poses new challenges for domestic industry while continental trade initiatives threaten the livelihood of Canadian workers and the stability of communities across all regions of the country.

A SMALL TOWN IN MODERN TIMES
ALEXANDRIA, ONTARIO

DAVID M. RAYSIDE

Alexandria — a town of about 3,500 people, half English and half French, in Glengarry County in Eastern Ontario — conforms in some respects to the stereotype of small towns as friendly communities without the strains of city life. Working-class life is disadvantaged in Alexandria much as it is in large cities. French-English relations are strained, and the experience of women has not been affected to any great extent by the challenges of feminism. Rayside examines the impact of the external world on this small community, situating this impact and the resulting changes in historical context and reveals economic and social relationships that differ from what many of Alexandria's inhabitants believe to be the case.

Editorial Policy and Notes to Contributors / Politique éditoriale et avis aux collaborateurs

---

The Canadian Journal of Political Science, whose policy is set by the Editorial Board, is committed to the publication of scholarly research in all fields of political science. Manuscripts are assessed on the basis of their contribution to the discipline and by the authors' adherence to the highest scholarly standards. The Editorial Board may judge manuscripts unsuitable if they are too narrow or specialized for an omnibus political science journal.

La Revue canadienne de science politique dont la politique est mise en place par le comité de rédaction s'engage à publier des travaux de recherche académique dans toutes les orientations de la science politique. Les manuscrits sont évalués sur la base de leur contribution à l'avancement des connaissances dans la discipline et selon la conformité des textes aux exigences académiques les plus élevées. Le comité de rédaction peut considérer inadmissibles des manuscrits portant sur des sujets trop spécialisés ou trop étroits.

Authors are requested to forward four copies of their manuscripts together with four copies of an abstract of 100 words. Manuscripts should not be longer than 35 pages (all material included). All material must be double-spaced. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed in a single listing at the end of the paper. Tables and diagrams must be submitted on separate pages. In preparing a manuscript for consideration by the Editorial Board, authors should follow the JOURNAL's style sheet which the editors can supply. Otherwise, the most recent issue of the JOURNAL can serve as a style guide. Manuscripts will not be returned.

Les auteurs doivent faire parvenir leur manuscrits en quatre exemplaires accompagnés d'un résumé de 100 mots en quatre exemplaires. Les manuscrits ne doivent pas dépasser 35 pages dactylographiées à double interligne (y compris les notes, les références et les tableaux). Les références doivent aussi être présentées à double interligne dans un ordre consécutif à la fin du manuscrit. Les tableaux et les graphiques doivent être soumis sur des pages séparées. Avant de soumettre un manuscrit, les auteurs doivent s'assurer que le protocole de rédaction de la REVUE est respecté. Ce protocole peut leur être envoyé sur demande ou ils peuvent s'inspirer à cet égard du dernier numéro de la REVUE. Les manuscrits ne sont pas retournés aux auteurs.

The Editorial Board considers manuscripts on an exclusive basis only; that is, a manuscript submitted for consideration must not have been previously published, nor be under consideration, nor accepted for publication, elsewhere.

Le comité de rédaction considère que les manuscrits lui sont soumis en exclusivité; c'est-à-dire qu'un manuscrit soumis ne doit pas avoir déjà été publié, être soumis ou accepté pour publication dans une autre revue.
