

Revised Edition
CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS
COMMENTARY AND DOCUMENTS

by

Leland M. Goodrich and Edvard Hambro

In addition to the material which made the first volume quoted in the Security Council as "the most authoritative interpretation in existence," the revised edition traces the development of the Charter from Dumbarton Oaks through July, 1948.

This enlarged and comprehensive survey is required for every serious student of international relations.

The American Political Science
Association

A society devoted to the study of government and contemporary public affairs, and publisher of the bi-monthly

American Political Science Review

Membership in the Association is open to persons who have an interest in promoting the study of government and in the dispassionate discussion of public affairs. There are four classes of members. Annual members pay dues of $6.60 per year; sustaining members, $10.00 per year; contributing members, $25.00 per year; and life members make a single payment of $200.00, or eight annual payments of $25.00 each, and are exempt from payment of annual dues. All of these members possess the right to vote and participate in the annual meetings. Associate members are limited to registered students in colleges and universities, and pay annual dues of $3.60. A second membership in the same family may be secured for $2.00 per year without a subscription to the Review. All other members, including associate members, are entitled to receive the American Political Science Review. Inquiries regarding membership may be directed to Harvey Walker, Secretary-Treasurer, American Political Science Association, 100 University Hall, Ohio State University, Columbus 10, Ohio.
