Modern Intellectual History

Editors

Charles Capper, Charles Capper

Duncan Kelly, University of Cambridge, UK

Anthony J. LaVopa, North Carolina State University, USA

Samuel Moyn, Columbia University, USA

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.

The Historical Journal

Editors

Julian Hoppit, University College London, UK

Clare Jackson, University of Cambridge, UK

The Historical Journal continues to publish papers on all aspects of British, European, and world history since the fifteenth century. The best contemporary scholarship is represented. Contributions come from all parts of the world. The journal aims to publish some thirty-five articles and communications each year and to review recent historical literature, mainly in the form of historiographical reviews and review articles. The journal provides a forum for younger scholars making a distinguished debut as well as publishing the work of historians of established reputation.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Science in Context is an international journal edited at the Cohn Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Ideas, Tel Aviv University. It is devoted to the study of the sciences from points of view of comparative epistemology and historical sociology of scientific knowledge. The journal is committed to an interdisciplinary approach to the study of science and its cultural development; it does not segregate considerations drawn from history, philosophy, and sociology. Controversies within scientific knowledge and debates about methodology are presented in their contexts. The journal encourages analyses whose approach is drawn from cognate disciplines such as social anthropology, art history, hermeneutics, and social sciences.

Manuscripts should be submitted, by mail or email, to the editorial office with a cover sheet including your name, fax, telephone number, and email address. The editors require a separate text of 150 words that presents the argument of your paper. Hardcopies should be anonymous and sent in triplicate accompanied by a disk preferably in Rich Text Format (RTF), or a major wordprocessing program such as MS Word. Our mailing address is: Science in Context, The Cohn Institute for the History and Philosophy of Science and Ideas, Tel Aviv University, Ramat Aviv, Tel Aviv 69978, Israel. Submissions by email should be sent to: <sic@post.tau.ac.il>. Submission of a paper is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and that it is not being considered for publication elsewhere. Upon acceptance of the paper, the author will be asked to transfer copyright to Cambridge University Press. There are no page charges.

The journal follows the author-date reference system that is generally used in the social and natural sciences. 'Documentation Two' in Chicago Manual of Style and a back issue of the journal should be used as guides when preparing the manuscript.

1. REFERENCE LIST: Full bibliographical information is listed alphabetically at the end of the paper. This list should include all the sources that are cited in parentheses in the text.

a. BOOKS: Author's last name, author's full first name; year, including original date in square brackets when a reprint is being cited; title; editor or translator if applicable; city; publisher. E.g. Bourbaki, Nicolas. [1960] 1994. Elements of the History of Mathematics. Translated by John Meldrum. Berlin: Springer.

b. ARTICLES IN BOOKS: Author's last name, author's full first name; year; title of article; title of book; editor or translator if applicable; page numbers; city and publisher. E.g. Corry, Leo. 1996. "David Hilbert and Physics." In The Symbolic Universe: Geometry and Physics, 1890-1930, edited by Jeremy Gray, 120-135. Oxford: Oxford University Press.

c. ARTICLES IN PERIODICALS: Author's last name, author's full first name; year; title of article; periodical; volume; page numbers. E.g. Foucault, Michel. 1978. "Politics and the Study of Discourse." Ideology and Consciousness 3:7-26.

d. WEBSITES: title; name of editor (if given); version; date of last update; sponsoring institution or organization; date of access; URL. E.g. American Museum Congo Expedition 1909-1915. Ver. 2.0. January 2003. American Museum of Natural History. 20 July 2003 <<http://diglib1.amnh.org>>.

2. CITATIONS IN TEXT: The AUTHOR and DATE (and PAGES if relevant) are set off in parentheses in the text and will refer readers to the complete information that is given in the Reference List. E.g. (Corry 1996, 120).

3. FOOTNOTES or ENDNOTES are used only to present important and relevant points that would otherwise interrupt the flow or structure of the paper. These notes are numbered consecutively and listed as endnotes, even though they will appear as footnotes in the journal.

Unusual alphabets, special characters, mathematical and chemical formulas, and all diacritical markings should be marked clearly. A small number of figures may be used to illustrate an article. Line drawings should be directly reproducible; glossy prints should be furnished for all halftone illustrations. If supplying illustrations as electronic files TIFF is the required format with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi for halftones and 1200 dpi for line drawings.
