PROBLEMS OF PARLIAMENTARY GOVERNMENT IN COLONIES

A report prepared by the Hansard Society on some of the problems involved in developing parliamentary institutions in colonial territories.

$1.75

"This admirable little book . . . (noted for) the lucidity of its style. . . . The authors have said the things that need constantly to be borne in mind, and have found words in which to say them which are a model of restraint. . . . Admirably set out and amounts to a complete skeleton plan for further research. . . . Selected bibliographies greatly add to the value."—The Times Literary Supplement.

"The best simple statement of the most urgent colonial question of our time. It deserves to be read because it is readable—the language plain and clear; the argument admirable in point and balance."—Journal of African Administration.

"Should do much to provide a clearer background to political events in colonial territories."—The Times.

THE IDEA

"It was apparent at once that we did not want a political or historical review construed in any narrow sense, although we had no instinct to ignore the presentation, in the way of science, of facts, techniques and processes. What we desired was a kind of universal publication drawing constantly upon the past and ranging into every serious field of intellectual action. We wanted, actually, to revive the Aristotelian conception of politics, a sovereign conception that embraced everything, every interest, every event, every idea affecting the life of man in the human community. Even more, we wanted to bring to bear upon the special problems raised by modern culture the illumination of a valid spiritual and philosophical tradition, an illumination best described perhaps as the Christian world-view."
