The Helladic Settlement Preceding
the Argive Heraeum

By CARL W. BLEGEN

With a Chapter on the Jewellery and Ornaments
by E. P. Blegen.

In two volumes. Vol. I, 8 plates in colour. Vol. II, 731 illustrations, 52 plans. Edition limited to 350 copies.
£7 7s. net.

Professor Blegen presents an account of the results of the expedition undertaken by the American School of Classical Studies, describing the remains brought to light, the vestiges of the settlement itself, the deposits and burials of the Neolithic age, the Middle Helladic graves, and the late Helladic chamber tombs. The book concludes with general remarks on the chamber tombs, and detailed discussions of the jewellery, bronzes, terracottas, and pottery.

PERSEUS

A Study in Greek Art and Legend

By J. M. WOODWARD

33 pages of plates. 10s. 6d. net.

We study the Greek verb and neglect the Greeks' cherished legends. This book presents the legend of Perseus, in translations from Greek writers and in representations from Greek art. The latter will prove good landmarks to anyone making a first study of classical art.

THE PALACE OF MINOS

A Comparative Account of the Successive Stages of the Early Cretan Civilization as illustrated by the Discoveries at Knossos

By SIR ARTHUR EVANS, D.Litt., etc., F.R.S.

Vol. IV (the concluding Volume) in Two Parts

Crown 4to. With 966 figures in the text, plans, coloured and supplementary plates.
£9 9s. net.

Forty years after the beginning of the exploration it has been given to the author to complete this final volume. The work now forms a real Encyclopædia of Minoan art and culture.

"The great work is accomplished, the biggest piece of creative scholarship since the completion of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire. For, different in kind as has been the life work of Sir Arthur Evans, in scale, originality, and range of learning it is comparable with that of Gibbon."—Professor W. R. Halliday (Manchester Guardian).

The Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies.

50, BEDFORD SQUARE, LONDON, W.C. 1

President: DR. H. IDRIS BELL, F.B.A.

THE subjects to promote the study of which the Society was formed are the history, archæology and art of Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire in general down to about 700 A.D. In particular, so far as its resources permit, and so far as is possible without prejudice to the wider objects with which it is concerned, the Society endeavours to encourage the study of Britain under Roman occupation by devoting space in its Journal to articles on Romano-British history and archæology.

In connexion with the Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies the Society maintains a joint library of works on classical antiquity, and a collection of lantern-slides and photographs. Members are entitled to borrow books and slides, and these can be sent to them by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at 50 Bedford Square.

Afternoon meetings for the reading and discussion of papers are held usually at Burlington House, Piccadilly, W.1, and one evening meeting is arranged for the discussion of a subject useful to teachers of Roman history. Further, the autumn meeting in 1937 is to be held out of London as an experiment. Notices of these are sent to all members.

The Journal of Roman Studies, which is open to the contributions of both British and foreign scholars, is published by the Society in half-yearly parts, and is sent post free to all members.

The Annual Subscription for membership of the Society is one guinea. The composition fee for life membership is ten guineas for persons over fifty years of age, and fifteen guineas for others. Student Associates are admitted at the reduced subscription of 10s. 6d.

Persons desirous of joining the Society are asked to communicate with the Secretary at the Haverfield Library, Ashmolean Museum, Oxford.

The Classical Association.

The objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £3 15s.), and there is an entrance fee of 5s., from which members of Local Branches, Libraries and Corporate Bodies are exempt. Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association and, on a payment of 2/6, of The Year's Work in Classical Studies (both post free.) They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices, though the reduction cannot be guaranteed unless the subscription is paid before January 31st in each year. Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 7s. 6d.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer of the Association (Miss Gedge, Westfield College [University of London], Hampstead, N.W. 3). Inquiries should be addressed to the Hon. Secretary of the Association (Prof. T. B. L. Webster, The University, Manchester), or to the Hon. Secretary of any one of the Local Branches, viz., Aberystwyth, Bedford and Northampton, Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Cardiff, East Anglia, Hull, Kent, Leeds, Leicester, Liverpool, London, Manchester, Northumberland and Durham, North Wales, Nottingham, Oxford, Reading, Sheffield, Southampton, South Western, Sussex, Swansea, Taunton and West Somerset.
