Position: Associate or Full Professor, Tenured

School of Medicine - Department of Epidemiology

The Department of Epidemiology at the University of California, Irvine is seeking applicants for a position at the level of Associate or Full Professor 1.0 FTE (tenured), who will lead nutritional epidemiology research including body composition and physical activity. The position also includes teaching of nutritional sciences and Physical activity of non-communicable and chronic diseases (NCDs). The successful candidate must have strong training and skills in nutritional sciences, and in particular, nutritional epidemiology of NCDs such as cancer, cardiovascular disease, diabetes and obesity. Candidates must have a track record in conducting nutritional epidemiology research with experience in conducting epidemiologic studies in populations and communities. Candidates must also have experience in studying the influences of factors that modify the effect of dietary intake such as physical activity and other lifestyle factors of disease outcome. The successful candidate is expected to establish an independent research program on the roles of nutrition in NCD risk assessment and prevention, with a focus on prevention. Candidates are expected to demonstrate future promise for establishing and maintaining vibrant, independent and extramurally-funded research programs. The research by the faculty in the Department of Epidemiology is multidisciplinary and encompasses a wide spectrum of non-infectious diseases in genetic epidemiology, environmental epidemiology and biostatistics. The successful candidate is expected to establish the research agenda in nutritional epidemiology and build academic linkages with other departments and centers throughout the university and with the community. A publication track record and prior NIH funding success in nutritional epidemiology and NCDs is essential.

Minimum Requirements - Applicants must hold a Ph.D. or M.D. in nutritional sciences epidemiology, physical activity/body composition or related fields such as public health and epidemiology. Minimum of 5 years work experience in an academic setting with success in obtaining extramural research funding in nutritional epidemiology of NCDs.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Please contact Dr. Hoda Anton-Culver, Ph.D., Chair of the Department of Epidemiology at hantoncu@uci.edu.

TO APPLY: Please log onto UC Irvine's RECRUIT located at <https://recruit.ap.uci.edu/apply>. Applicants should complete an online application profile and upload the following application materials electronically to be considered for this position: 1. Statement of Interest; 2. Curriculum Vitae; and, 3. Names of at least three references and their contact information.

The University of California, Irvine is an equal opportunity employer committed to excellence through diversity and strongly encourages applications from all qualified applicants including women and minorities. UCI is the recipient of a National Science Foundation ADVANCE award for gender equity.

Directions to Contributors - Concise Version

(Revised August 2007)

The British Journal of Nutrition is an international peer-reviewed journal that publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes and short communications in English in all branches of nutritional science. Prospective authors should note that they (or their institutions) now retain the copyright of their material published in the British Journal of Nutrition. As a contributor you are asked to follow the guidelines set out below. For detailed information on the presentation of the technical content of your paper please see the full version of the Directions to Contributors, which can be downloaded from the Nutrition Society website (<http://www.nutrition-society.org>). Prospective authors may also contact the Publications Office directly on + 44 (0)20 7605 6555 (telephone), +44 20 7602 1756 (fax), or edoffice@nutsoc.org.uk (email).

Papers should be accompanied by a statement to the effect that the conditions laid down in the full Directions to Contributors are accepted. The statement should affirm that the submission represents original work that has not been published previously and which is not currently being considered by another journal. It should also confirm that each author has seen and approved the contents of the submitted paper. At the time of acceptance the authors should provide a completed copy of the 'Licence to Publish' (in lieu of copyright transfer). The Licence to Publish is available on the Nutrition Society website (<http://www.nutrition-society.org>). All relevant financial interests should be declared.

Text. Papers should be submitted with 1.5 line spacing and margins of at least 2 cm on each side. Text should be printed without underlining, bold or italics (except for scientific names). Standard abbreviations (e.g. Fig. and Figs.) and SI units should be used. Typescripts can be submitted as Word, WordPerfect, EPS, Text, Postscript or RTF files. A Word processing format is required for production purposes once papers have been accepted. When substantial revisions are required to typescripts, authors are given the opportunity to do this once only, the need for any further changes should at most reflect any minor issues.

Title Page. The first page should include a concise, informative title together with the names and addresses of the authors. A contact name for correspondence should be given and telephone, fax and email addresses provided. Authors should supply three or four key words or phrases (each containing up to three words). A short title of up to 45 characters is required as a running head.

Abstract. Each paper should commence with an accurate and informative abstract, written as a single paragraph. It should be complete in itself and intelligible without reference to the text or figures, and should not exceed 250 words.

Tables. Tables should be reduced to the simplest form, and should not duplicate information in the text or figures. They should be typed on separate pages, one page for each Table, at the end of the article and carry headings describing their content.

Illustrations. The original illustrations should accompany the submitted typescript. Text figures, line drawings, computer-generated figures and graphs should be of sufficient size and quality to allow for reduction by half or two-thirds. Half-tone photographs are acceptable where they clearly contribute to the text. All figures should be numbered and legends should be provided.

Note that authors will be charged 350 GBP for the publication of colour figures. Authors from countries entitled to free journal access through HINARI will be exempt from these charges.

References. References should be based on the numbered (Vancouver) system. When an article has more than ten authors, only the names of the first three should be given followed by et al.; give abbreviated journal titles and conform to the following styles:

Goel V, Cheema SK, Agellon LB, Ooraikul B & Basu TK (1999) Dietary rhubarb (Rheum raphanistrum) stalk fibre stimulates cholesterol 7 α -hydroxylase gene expression and bile acid excretion in cholesterol-fed C57BL/6J mice. Br J Nutr 81, 65–71.

Jenkins DJ, Kendall CW, Marchie A, et al. (2003) The effect of combining plant sterols, soy protein, viscous fibres, and almonds in treating hypercholesterolemia. Metabolism 52, 1478–1483.

Brandtzaeg P (2003) Role of local immunity and breast-feeding in mucosal homeostasis and defence against infections. In Nutrition and Immune Function, pp. 273–320 [PC Calder, CJ Field and HS Gill, editors]. Wallingford, Oxon: CAB International.

Stock M & Rothwell NJ (1982) Obesity and Leanness: Basic Aspects. London: John Libbey.

Citations should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they first appear in the text using superscript Arabic numerals in parentheses, e.g. 'The conceptual difficulty of this approach has recently been highlighted^(1,2-4). If a reference is cited more than once the same number should be used each time.

Referees. Authors are asked to submit the names of up to four scientists who would be well-qualified to review the paper; however, no more than one such reviewer will be used. The email addresses and institutions of the named reviewers should be given.

Proofs. PDF page proofs will be emailed to authors for checking, and should be returned within 3 days (by fax or Express mail) to the BJN Production Editor, Cambridge University Press, The Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 2RU, UK; fax +44 1223 325802, email bjnproduction@cambridge.org

Typescripts. The British Journal of Nutrition operates an on-line submission and reviewing system (eJournalPress). Authors should submit to the following address: <http://bjn.msubmit.net/> If any difficulties are encountered please contact the Publications Office (details above) immediately.
