JOURNAL OF SOUTH ASIAN AND MIDDLE EASTERN STUDIES

The major objective of this journal is to provide a forum for scholars engaged in study of the modern Islamic societies in South Asia, the Middle East, and North Africa. It hopes to create a dialogue among specialist and leaders in public affairs in a wide range of areas and disciplines, including military strategy and foreign policy. The physical sciences, the social science, business administration, public administration and the arts and humanities will also be included. Special issues might concentrate on such topics as regional cooperation, religious and intellectual developments, public works, engineering advances, and the impact of transnational cooperation on national communities. Articles are invited from all parts of the world.

The journal is published under the auspices of the Pakistan American Foundation, 138 Tolentine Hall; Villanova University, Villanova, Pa. 19085. All correspondence should be addressed to the Editor. (215) 645-4738. Annual subscription: $20.00. U.S. Institutions: $25.00. Foreign subscriptions: $30.00
