

News, Notes and Queries

WELLCOME INSTITUTE FOR THE HISTORY OF MEDICINE

The redevelopment of the Wellcome Building, 183 Euston Road, London NW1 2BE, has now been completed and the Wellcome Trust and the Wellcome Institute for the History of Medicine will have settled into it by the beginning of October 1992.

While the move is going on, the Library will be closed to the public from Monday 7 September and will re-open in the Wellcome Building on Monday 19 October 1992.

The telephone and fax numbers will be:

Tel.: 071 611 8888

Fax: 071 611 8545

Royal Society of Health HOW SAFE ARE THE MEDICINES YOU TAKE? One day conference: 19 November 1992

Venue: The Royal York Hotel, Station Road, York, YO2 2AA

Fee: £48.00 to Members of the Royal Society of Health

£75.00 to non-members

£25.00 to retired RSH Members, charities and students

All enquiries to: Conference Department,

The Royal Society of Health,

38A St George's Drive,

London SW1V 4BH.

Tel.: 071 630 0121; Fax: 071 976 6847