MISSION TO CATHAY

By ANSELM M. ROMB, O. F. M. CONV.

Filled with a burning love of God and a trust in Him which drove out all timidity, Blessed Odoric of Pordenone made the long trip from Venice to Cathay and back for one purpose only: to preach, teach, and baptize. This book, drawn largely from Odoric's own account of his travels and apostolic labors, is also a treatment of Franciscan mission activities in the Middle and Far East of the 14th century. Inspiring biography, colorful travel, thrilling history, it will have a wide public.
