By Order of the President

The Use and Abuse of Executive Direct Action Second Edition, Revised and Expanded

Phillip J. Cooper

Includes new material on the post-9/11 use of presidential direct action.

"Cooper provides an important primer on the president's administrative tools, and his contributions fill an important void in the literature. This study will be valuable to a wide audience of scholars including experts on the presidency, public policy, and public administration."—Congress & the Presidency

584 pages, 11 tables, 1 figure, Cloth $45.00, Paper $27.95

The Devils We Know Us and Them in America's Raucous Political Culture

James A. Morone

"How good it is to have this collection of bracing essays by one of the most imaginative scholars of the American experience. Ranging across a wide range of ideas, personalities, events, policies, and ethical challenges, The Devils We Know offers the gift of clarifying crucial conundrums and contradictions in American political culture."—Ira Katznelson, author of Fear Itself: The New Deal and the Origins of Our Time

264 pages, 2 tables, 1 map, Cloth $29.95

Chief Executive to Chief Justice

Taft betwixt the White House and Supreme Court

Lewis L. Gould

"Lew Gould has long been an indispensable guide to the presidency, particularly during the McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, Taft, and Wilson eras. In this engaging and engrossing book, Gould tells the story of how Taft satisfied his deepest ambition and became chief justice of the United States."—Laura Kalman, Professor of History, University of California, Santa Barbara

216 pages, 14 illustrations, Cloth $39.95, Ebook $39.95

NEW IN PAPERBACK

Rush to JudgmentGeorge W. Bush, the War on Terror, and His Critics

Stephen F. Knott

"In Rush to Judgment, Knott shows that the Bush administration could claim constitutional support for its controversial terrorism policies from Franklin Roosevelt to Abraham Lincoln back to Alexander Hamilton." —The Claremont Review

"A compelling, thorough defense not only of the 43rd president, but of the presidency itself as a historic institution."—The Weekly Standard

256 pages, 15 photographs, Paper $22.50, Ebook $22.50

Landmark Law Cases and American Society

Peter Charles Hoffer, N.E.H. Hull, and Williamjames Hull Hoffer, series editors

Race, Sex, and the Freedom to Marry

Loving v. Virginia

Peter Wallenstein

"Placing the drama in historical context, Wallenstein masterfully guides the reader through the Lovings' struggle in state and federal courts."

—Charles F. Robinson II, author of Forsaking All Others: A True Story of Interracial Sex and Revenge in the 1880s South

304 pages, Cloth $39.95, Paper $19.95, Ebook $19.95

The Passenger Cases and the Commerce Clause

Immigrants, Blacks, and States' Rights in Antebellum America

Tony Allan Freyer

"In his comprehensive treatment of The Passenger Cases, Tony Allan Freyer deftly situates the decision at the intersection of the political and legal disputes over slavery, immigration, and federal power."—Earl Maltz, author of Dred Scott and the Politics of Slavery

216 pages, Cloth $39.95, Paper $19.95, Ebook $19.95

About the Centennial Center

Since 2003, the APSA Centennial Center for Political Science & Public Affairs encourages individual research and writing in all fields of political science, facilitates collaboration among scholars working within the discipline and across the social and behavioral sciences and humanities. and promotes communication between scholars and policymakers. Through its Washington, DC facilities and endowed funding programs, the Centennial Center 'celebrates the past by investing in the future.'

The Center, its residential facilities, and supplemental awards are made possible in part through the generous donations of APSA members. To learn more about supporting the Centennial Center or holding an event in Washington, please contact centennial@apsanet.org.

Centennial Center for Political Science & Public Affairs

2014-2015 Opportunities

n 2014-2015, the Centennial Center will provide Residential Research Fellowships at the APSA national offices in Washington, DC, and Supplemental Research Awardsto scholars conducting research anywhere in the world.

Residential Research Fellowships

The Center assists scholars from the United States and abroad whose research and teaching would benefit from a stay in Washington, DC and access to the incomparable resources that are available in the nation's capital. The Center hosts up to seven scholars for extended periods of time, ranging from weeks to months. Space for shorter "drop-in" stays is also available. Scholars are expected to pursue their own research and teaching projects and contribute to the intellectual life of the residential community by sharing their work with Center colleagues in occasional informal seminars.

Located within the Association's headquarters building near Dupont

Circle, with easy access to the Washington Metro system, the Center offers visiting scholars furnished shared work space, telephone, fax, personal computers, Internet connection, conference space, a reference library, and library access at the George Washington University.

Supplemental Research Awards

Open to APSA members, the Center also provides supplemental research awards to support scholars working at the Centennial Center or other research locations.

In 2014-2015, funds will support direct research costs, travel to APSA and other academic meetings, joint research projects, and

"The Centennial
Center has given me an excellent base in Washington.
I can't imagine how stressful my sabbatical would have been without all the support."

programs to assist early career scholars in publishing their research. To learn about eligibility, how to apply, and more please visit www.apsanet.org or email centennial@apsanet.org.
