

INFORMAL LOGIC NEWSLETTER

The Informal Logic Newsletter began publication in July, 1978. The editors are Ralph H. Johnson and J. Anthony Blair of the Department of Philosophy, University of Windsor.

The purpose of this newsletter is to serve as a clearing-house for the exchange of ideas and information about the theory, practice and pedagogy of informal logic. The editors plan to issue at least three numbers each year; the total number of issues and the format of each newsletter will depend upon submissions from subscribers.

Subscription rates: $4.00 per year to individuals; $8.00 per year to institutions — payable to: Informal Logic Newsletter. Send requests and items for publication to;

The Journal of Philosophy

Subscriptions at $10.00/year; $7.00 to students
$16.00 to libraries and institutions

The Journal of Philosophy announces the publication of Dewey and His Critics, edited by Sidney Morgenbesser. From 1905 until his death, John Dewey published some of his most significant papers and replied to some of his most important critics in the pages of The Journal of Philosophy. These exchanges tell the story of the development of his philosophy over 50 years and the formation of American philosophy through that period. The Journal of Philosophy presents in one volume Dewey's seminal papers, the critical comments, and his answers to such critics as Russell, Lewis, Santayana. The Introduction by Sidney Morgenbesser situates Dewey and his critics in the perspective of contemporary philosophical thought. 760 pages. $8.00 in paper, $15.00 in cloth, plus 60¢ postage.
