THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA OF ISLAM

SECOND EDITION

The first edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam has been out of print for many years. Almost entirely re-written by a number of leading orientalists and edited by J. H. KRAMERS, H. A. R. GIBB, and E. LÉVI-PROVENÇAL, this new edition gives more space to economic and social topics, and it is intended on completion to publish an atlas and general index. It will be completed in 100 parts of 64 pages each (approximately ten parts will be issued per year). Binding cases will be issued for each twenty parts so that the entire work will consist of five stout volumes.

Vol. 1, Fasc. 1 and 2. NOW READY.

ORIENTAL SUBJECTS

THE LEADING MONTHLY ON ASIAN AFFAIRS

Eastern World

Keeps its readers abreast with the political, social, and economic developments in that area and aims at fostering a greater understanding between East and West. As a non-party, impartial forum for free discussion, its articles contain vital information on Asian affairs and mirror the leading opinions on all issues concerning that part of the world. Important controversial matters are ventilated in an independent manner and offer an invaluable source of information on that centre of world affairs. It is well illustrated and belongs to those few international publications which are essential to everyone who wishes to follow world events.
