IPA on the Web

The IPA also maintains a site on the World Wide Web which provides information on the International Phonetic Alphabet, on available phonetic fonts and sound recordings, on subscription to the Association, and on examinations in phonetics. It also has links to other sources of information on phonetics. The address is:

<http://www.langsci.ucl.ac.uk/IPA/ipa>

Audio files of the recorded material accompanying the language Illustrations in the Handbook of the International Phonetic Association, published by Cambridge University Press in 1999, may be downloaded from the following web site:

<http://web.uvic.ca/ling/resources/ipa/handbook.htm>

Audio files of the recorded material accompanying language Illustrations published in the Journal of the International Phonetic Association since 1998 (after the publication of the Handbook of the International Phonetic Association) may be downloaded from the following privileged-access website available to registered members of the IPA:

<http://web.uvic.ca/ling/resources/ipa/members>

Members can contact the Secretary to obtain a username and a password.

Membership services and publications

The annual dues of the Association for 2013 are 45 euros for full membership and 22.50 euros for student membership. They should be paid to the Treasurer, International Phonetic Association, Research Department of Speech, Hearing and Phonetic Sciences, Chandler House, 2 Wakefield Street, London WC1N 1PF, UK. Life membership is obtainable by paying the equivalent of twenty years' annual dues, 900 euros. A membership application form is printed overleaf. Membership includes a subscription to the Journal. Payment can be made by credit card using the on-line facility at:

<http://www.langsci.ucl.ac.uk/ipa/subs.html>

Members receive three numbers of the Journal each year. Back issues of the Journal may also be obtained. For the years 1970–2000, information is available at:

http://www.langsci.ucl.ac.uk/ipa/back_issues.html

The prices per issue are (including postage & packaging; contact the Treasurer for the current rate in non-euro currencies):

IPA members:	15.00 euros
Non-members:	25.00 euros
Institutions:	47.50 euros

IPA members who wish to obtain back issues of JIPA from 2001 to the present can do so by contacting the Treasurer. Non-members may obtain back issues of JIPA from 2001 to the present directly from Cambridge University Press, by e-mailing journals@cambridge.org.

Editors

Wim van der Wurff, University of Newcastle upon Tyne, UK

April McMahon, Aberystwyth University, UK

Bernd Kortmann, University of Freiburg, Germany

Founding Editors

Bas Aarts, University College London

David Denison, University of Manchester

Richard Hogg, University of Manchester, UK

English Language & Linguistics, published three times a year, is an international journal which focuses on the description of the English language within the framework of contemporary linguistics. The journal is concerned equally with the synchronic and the diachronic aspects of English language studies and publishes articles of the highest quality which make a substantial contribution to our understanding of the structure and development of the English language and which are informed by a knowledge and appreciation of linguistic theory.

English Language & Linguistics carries articles and short discussion papers or squibs on all core aspects of English, from its beginnings to the present day, including syntax, morphology, phonology, semantics, pragmatics, corpus linguistics and lexis.

JOURNALS

Journal of Child Language

Editor

Heike Behrens, University of Basel, Switzerland

A key publication in the field, Journal of Child Language publishes articles on all aspects of the scientific study of language development and behaviour in children, the principles which underlie it, and the theories which may account for it. The international range of authors and breadth of coverage allow the journal to forge links between many different areas of research including psychology, linguistics, cognitive science, speech pathology and anthropology. The interdisciplinary and crosslinguistic perspective spans a wide range of interests: phonology, phonetics, morphology, syntax, vocabulary, semantics, pragmatics, sociolinguistics and other recognised aspects of language study. In addition to articles and brief research reports, the journal also features occasional review articles plus invited commentaries.

Journal of French Language Studies

Co-ordinating Editor

Julia Herschensohn, University of Washington, USA

Journal of French Language Studies, affiliated with the Association for French Language Studies, encourages and promotes theoretical, descriptive and applied studies of all aspects of the French language. The journal brings together research from the English - and French - speaking traditions, publishing significant work on French phonology, morphology, syntax, lexis and semantics, discourse-pragmatics, sociolinguistics and variation studies. Most work is synchronic in orientation, but historical and comparative items are also included. Studies of the acquisition of the French language, where these take due account of current theory in linguistics and applied linguistics, are also published.

JOURNALS

Journal of Germanic Linguistics

Published for the Society for Germanic Linguistics (SGL) and the Forum for Germanic Language Studies (FGLS)

Editorial Committee Chair

Robert W. Murray, University of Calgary, Canada

The Journal of Germanic Linguistics (JGL) carries original articles, reviews, and notes on synchronic and diachronic issues pertaining to Germanic languages and dialects from the earliest phases to the present, including English (to 1500) and the extraterritorial varieties. Contributions are invited on the phonological, morphological, syntactic, and semantic analysis of these languages and dialects, as well as their historical development, both linguistic and textual. Especially welcome are contributions that address questions of interest to a broad range of scholars concerned with general issues in formal theory, sociolinguistics, and psycholinguistics.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial policy The Journal of the International Phonetic Association is concerned with all aspects of the theory, description, and use of phonetics and phonology. Contributions are subject to review and to the Editor's final decision as to publication. The primary language of the Journal is English, though contributions in other languages of wide scholarly currency may be accepted. Contributions in English may use either British or American standard spelling and punctuation, consistently.

Submission of manuscripts Except for book reviews, all manuscripts should be submitted to Adrian Simpson, Editor of JIPA (adrian.simpson@uni-jena.de; Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena, Institut für Germanistische Sprachwissenschaft 07737 Jena, Germany). Initially, submissions should be in a form that can be conveniently read by Editors and reviewers, and tables and figures should be included in the same document as the text. Papers may be submitted in hard copy in triplicate, but electronically submitted PDF files, e-mailed as AuthorName.pdf attachments (e.g. Smith.pdf) or sent on disc, are preferable. An e-mail address is required for publication. Most standard word-processing formats (for either PC or Macintosh) are supported.

Books for review and manuscripts of book reviews should be sent to Linda Shockey, Reviews Editor (l.shockey@reading.ac.uk; Department of English Language and Literature (Applied Linguistics), University of Reading, P.O. Box 218, Reading, RG6 6AA, UK).

After a paper or a book review has been accepted for publication, authors must be prepared to submit it as specified below. If extensive re-formatting is necessary, the Editors reserve the right to refer the manuscript to the author for improvements. Authors are advised to consult recent JIPA articles for illustration of the required style. Phonetic transcriptions should make use of the symbols and conventions of the Association's alphabet in its latest revision. Throughout the entire manuscript/all the files, text should use 12 pt Times/Times Roman font and, for IPA transcriptions, a Unicode-compliant IPA serif font that includes all symbols required (e.g. Doulos SIL, Charis, LaserIPA Unicode). Fonts that are not Unicode-compliant (e.g. IPA Kiel) should not be used. Use the special IPA font even for ordinary letter-like IPA symbols in strings where at least one symbol is drawn from the special IPA font set. This applies to all the symbols, including slants and square brackets if they enclose a transcription string. Non-IPA text in tables and table and figure captions should be set in sans serif font – please follow the format in recent JIPA issues.

Please note that JIPA requires the phonetic symbol g to be g (i.e. Opentail G = IPA110, NOT Looptail G = IPA210), and the length mark to be ː (i.e. IPA503, NOT the 'colon' symbol).

The final version of all material accepted for publication, including final tables and graphics files, must be submitted in hard copy, accompanied by the electronic copy in identical DOC and PDF files. At present, JIPA cannot process LaTeX files.

Manuscript style Please consult the online version of Instructions for Contributors on the Journal's webpages, via <http://journals.cambridge.org/ipa>.

Recordings of data. Contributions to Illustrations of the IPA should be accompanied at the time of submission to the Editor by high-quality recordings, preferably as WAV (.wav) files with at least a 22 kHz sampling rate, of all words and narrative text in the target language occurring anywhere in the Illustration. Further instructions on the form of Illustrations are available from the Editor.

Proofs and PDF files. Authors (or their nominees) will be asked by e-mail to download proofs as PDF files. They will be asked to correct the proofs and send the corrections to the designated Editor and to the copy-editor, by e-mail, within three days of receipt. Upon publication, the corresponding author will be supplied with two hard copies of the journal issue in which the article is printed by post and a PDF file of their contribution by e-mail.
