The Autobiography of Ozaki Yukio

The Struggle for Constitutional Government in Japan

Translated by Fujiko Hara

With a foreword by Marius B. Jansen

Ozaki Yukio was returned to his seat in the Japanese Diet twenty-five times, and served from its inception in 1890 to 1953. He both witnessed and propelled Japan's transformation from a late feudal society to a modern state. His autobiography, available in English for the first time, gives an insider's account of key episodes and leaders over seven decades of Japanese history.

Betrayal and Other Acts of Subversion

Feminism, Sexual Politics, Asian American Women's Literature

Leslie Bow

Asian American women have long dealt with charges of betrayal within their communities. Leslie Bow explores how representations of females transgressing the social order play out in literature by Asian American women.

"A smart, timely, and provocative analysis. . . ."
—Wendy S. Hesford, Indiana University

Buddhist Learning and Textual Practice in Eighteenth-Century Lankan Monastic Culture

Anne M. Blackburn

Anne Blackburn explores the emergence of a predominant Buddhist monastic culture in eighteenth-century Sri Lanka, while asking larger questions about the place of monasticism and education in the creation of religious and national traditions.

"Anne Blackburn offers a powerful new way of thinking about Buddhist monasticism."
—Charles Hallisey, Harvard University
