STEPHEN'S COMMENTARIES on THE LAWS OF ENGLAND

21st Edition, 1950. Editor-in-Chief: L. CRISPIN WARMINGTON, Solicitor of the Supreme Court (Honours).

"Indeed, if a treatise sets out to provide 'a complete elementary statement of the law of England' . . . it is difficult to see how this ambitious aim could have been better achieved. It is quite astonishing how much is covered . . ."—Law Notes.

In four volumes and supplement, price £6 15s. per set, post free

JENKS' ENGLISH CIVIL LAW

4th Edition, 1947. General Editor, P. H. WINFIELD, LL.D. (Cantab.), Hon. LL.D. (Harvard and Leeds), K.C., F.B.A., Emeritus Professor of English Law in the University of Cambridge, Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge; Honorary Bencher of the Inner Temple.

" . . . the student who desires a summary of English Private Law with historical notes, judicial decisions and copious cross-references, will find these volumes a capital investment which will yield rich dividends for many years."—Law Notes.

In two volumes, price £5 16s. per set, post free

JAMES'S INTRODUCTION to ENGLISH LAW

1950. By PHILIP S. JAMES, M.A., of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law, formerly Fellow of Exeter College, Oxford.

This new book has been written to introduce the student to the basic principles of English law. University students of law will obtain from it a background to their further studies.

"The real value of the book is that it is founded on profound scholarship and sound learning and that its style is clear and concise."—The Law Times.

Price 12s. 6d., post free

KEE & COWPER-COLES' DIVORCE CASE BOOK

1950. By WILLIAM KEE, of the Inner Temple, and the South-Eastern Circuit, Barrister-at-Law and SHERARD COWPER-COLES of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law. Consulting Editor, GEOFFREY TYNDALE, one of His Majesty's Counsel, a Bencher of the Inner Temple.

"Divorce practitioners and students alike will welcome the appearance of this new book, designed primarily to present a readable foundation to the statute and case law relating to divorce matters."—The Law Society's Gazette.

Price £1 11s. 6d., post free

CURRENT LAW

General Editor: JOHN BURKE, Barrister-at-Law

MONTHLY PARTS

CURRENT LAW is published on the 8th of each month and presents ALL THE LAW for the preceding month in a convenient and readable form. It covers all reported decisions of the English Courts; the relevant Scottish and Irish decisions; all Acts of Parliament and Church of England Measures; all rules and orders; command papers, circulars and official statements, and articles in the weekly, monthly, quarterly and annual periodicals.

CURRENT LAW is arranged under titles and sub-titles chosen with a view to making the work a universal supplement to all law books.

The valuable new Case Citator gives in a single alphabetical table not only the new cases but also (in distinctive type) all other cases which have been commented on during the year. The whole law for the year is made continuously and instantly available by a cumulative index which is revised every month.

YEAR BOOK

At the end of the year the monthly parts of CURRENT LAW are superseded by a Year Book. This is not a mere reprint of the monthly parts, but a new consolidated statement of the law for the year arranged alphabetically under headings.

STATUTES

CURRENT LAW STATUTES are issued with annotations as soon as possible after they receive the Royal Assent. Each part contains a Cumulative Annotations Supplement, Cumulative Statute Citator (showing statutory amendments, statutory instruments and cases on construction) and Cumulative Index.
