BELIEFS, ACTIONS, AND THE EXPERIENCE
OF SALVATION IN A CAROLINA BAPTIST CHURCH

M. Jean Heriot

An ethnographic study of a Southern Baptist congregation in South Carolina, Blessed Assurance examines the ways in which believers construct a worldview that makes salvation central to their identity.

272 pages, ISBN -850-9, $34.50

■ "Sometimes in the Wrong, but Never in Doubt"

GEORGE S. BENSON AND THE EDUCATION
OF THE NEW RELIGIOUS RIGHT

L. Edward Hicks

The author explores the life and career of George S. Benson, whose work as a fundamentalist Christian educator foreshadowed the political activism now associated with such figures as Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson.

MARY COLLSON, A CLERGYWOMAN
IN CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Cynthia Grant Tucker

This book examines the career of an idealistic reformer whose society offered her no satisfactory outlet for her extraordinary talent. First as a Unitarian minister, then as a Hull House social worker, and finally as a Christian Science practitioner, Mary Collson tried to forge a vocation that would improve the lot of the poor and dispirited.

THE PEW CHARITABLE TRUSTS

Research Advancement Grants for Projects in Mission Studies and World Christianity

The Religion Program of The Pew Charitable Trusts invites proposals for large-scale projects that will enhance team research and publication in studies of Christian Mission and non-Western Christianity. Grants for two- to three-year collaborative projects with costs ranging from $50,000–$100,000 (U.S.) per year will be made on a competitive basis for work that will significantly advance understanding of cross-cultural mission or the development of Christianity in the non-Western world. Projects should be directed by one or more established scholars, have access to appropriate research facilities, involve scholars from non-Western cultures and contribute to the intellectual and cross-cultural vitality of the world Christian movement. Projects that are international and interdisciplinary and that elicit significant contributions from the Two-Thirds World are particularly welcome. Two or three grants will be awarded at the end of 1995, subject to the quality of proposals received and the availability of funds.

Send letters of inquiry (three pages maximum) outlining the main purpose, components and cost of the intended project by May 15, 1995 to:

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CHURCH HISTORY
Membership Information

The American Society of Church History was founded in 1888 by Philip Schaff and a group of colleagues. It is affiliated with the American Historical Association. Its purpose is to foster interest in the history of Christianity, and its interrelationship with its cultural context by encouraging research, writing, and teaching in this discipline.

The membership of the society consists of scholars, men and women, the majority of whom serve on faculties of colleges, universities, and seminaries. Others are archivists, clergy members, professional writers, and students, or simply those who have a serious interest in church history. The society is ecumenical in character, comprising members of various religious persuasions.

In addition to Church History, a journal published quarterly, the society holds an annual meeting in conjunction with the American Historical Association and a spring meeting on the campus of a host institution. The meeting programs and the journal provide opportunities for exploring a wide variety of subjects and the exchange of thought. Membership dues entitle one to receive the journal, with its informative articles and large book review section, and attend the meetings of the society.

In order to interest younger scholars, particularly those of ethnic minorities, in the work of the society, the council has voted to offer a dues-free membership (up to two years) to all graduate students working in the area of church history at an accredited institution upon the approval of a professor who is also a member of the society.

Annual dues are $30.00, plus $7.00 foreign postage, including Canada. Graduate students working in the area of church history with the approval and verification of a professor who is also a member of the society may join without paying a fee. Persons who have been members of the society for at least five years and are now retired from professional life may continue membership at $15.00 per year. Membership in the society includes a subscription to Church History. The council approves applications at its semiannual meetings.

PRIZES OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CHURCH HISTORY

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize

The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize, offered annually, is a subvention fund of $1000 to assist a press in publishing a book-length manuscript in church history. The Brewer Prize is limited to first books. Manuscripts already accepted for publication may be submitted for this award, but the publication must have printed on its title-page, "The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History." The monetary grant will be authorized upon receipt in writing of a commitment from a publisher accepting the manuscript. Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 November. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The award will be announced at the Spring meeting of the Society. No award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding.

Winner for 1994: Stephen Burnett "From the Jews' Own Books: Johann Buxtorf, Christian Hebraism, and the Emergence of Jewish Studies."

Winner for 1993: Diana Hochstedt Butler, "Standing Against the Whirlwind: A Study of the Evangelical Party in the Protestant Episcopal Church."

Winner for 1992: Gregory Hanlon, "Confession and Community in Seventeenth-Century France: Catholics and Protestants in Acquitaine."

The Philip Schaff Prize

The Philip Schaff Prize is an award in the amount of $1000 to be paid to the author of the best book originating in the North American scholarly community which presents original research in the history of Christianity or any period thereof. This award is given in odd-numbered years. Books published during the two previous calendar years are eligible for the competition. Any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration. Copies of nominated books need not be submitted. Titles of nominated books must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701 by 1 March in odd-numbered years. The prize will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1993: Stephen J. Stein, The Shaker Experience in America.

Winner for 1991: David D. Hall, Worlds of Wonder, Days of Judgment: Popular Religious Belief in Early New England.

The Sidney E. Mead Prize

The Sidney E. Mead Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay in any field of church history written by a doctoral candidate or recent recipient whose manuscript stems directly from doctoral research. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including double-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 July. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1992: Alison Williams Lewin, "'Cum Status Ecclesie Noster Sit . . .': Florence and the Council of Pisa (1409)."

Winner for 1991: Ernest Freeburg, "'An Object of Peculiar Interest': The Education of Laura Bridgman."

THE ALBERT C. OUTLER PRIZE IN ECUMENICAL CHURCH HISTORY

The Albert C. Outler Prize in Ecumenical Church History consists of an award of $1000 to the author of a book-length manuscript and a possible grant of up to $3000 for publication costs—or in exceptional cases, for necessary expenses in the preparation of a manuscript accepted for publication. The term “Ecumenical” is to be construed as chiefly concerned with the problems of Christian unity and disunity (doctrinal, cultural, institutional) in any period of church history, or with interactions between Christianity and other religious movements. Works of a partisan nature are excluded. The winning manuscript must have printed on its title-page, “The Albert C. Outler Prize in Ecumenical History of the American Society of Church History.” Complete manuscripts in final form must be received by Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 June. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner 1993: Allen C. Guelzo, For the Union of Evangelical Christendom: The Irony of the Reformed Episcopalians, 1873–1930.

Winner for 1991: Ronald L. Numbers, The Creationists.

THE JANE DEMPSEY DOUGLASS PRIZE

The Jane Dempsey Douglass Prize is an award in the amount of $250 for the author of the best unpublished essay on some aspect of the role of women in the history of Christianity. The manuscript will be published in Church History. Entries of no more than twenty-five double-spaced pages, including doubled-spaced endnotes, must be submitted to Henry W. Bowden, P.O. Box 8517, Red Bank, NJ 07701, by 1 August each year. The prize is offered annually, though no award will be made in any year when none of the manuscripts is adjudged to be outstanding. Manuscripts may not be submitted in more than one ASCH competition. The winner will be announced at the annual Winter meeting of the Society.

Winner for 1993: Genevieve McCoy, “Post-Edwardian Calvinism and the Women of the ABCFM Oregon Mission.”

Winner for 1991: Joyce Irwin, “Pietism and Women: A Study in Contrasts.”

THE WORLD'S PARLIAMENT OF RELIGIONS

*The East/West Encounter,
Chicago, 1893*

Richard Hughes Seager

The 1893 World's Parliament of Religions was conceived as a presentation of all the major religions of the time, with the goal "to unite all religion against irreligion." Seager's beautifully fashioned narrative explores this fascinating event in all its complexities and shows it to be truly a watershed event in the creation of a more pluralistic religious culture in America.

FROM SIN TO SALVATION

*Stories of Women's Conversions, 1800
to the Present*

Virginia Lieson Breerton

"... fascinating..." —Theological Book Review

By examining women's conversion experiences, the author provides a corrective to the much popularized TV evangelism. She examines the stories U.S. women have told of their profound realization of their sinfulness and the necessity of turning to God's grace and love for forgiveness.

PROPHETIC SISTERHOOD

Liberal Women Ministers of the Frontier, 1880–1930

Cynthia Grant Tucker

An inspiring account of Unitarian and Universalist clergywomen on the western frontier in the nineteenth century. Their questioning of traditional roles led to the creation of a domestic ministry whose scope extended far beyond the pulpit to suffrage, social settlements, and the peace movement. But because they were women, they failed to gain institutional acceptance.

MEMOIR OF A VICTORIAN WOMAN

Reflections of

Louise Creighton, 1850–1936

Edited by James Thayne Covert

A fascinating, personal portrait of the private and public life of a Victorian woman—Louise Creighton, cleric's wife, mother of seven, and author of numerous books, including Some Famous Women (1909), an early work of women's history.

THE IMPACT OF THE REFORMATION

HEIKO A. OBERMAN

“These essays demonstrate again why Heiko Oberman is the leading student of the Reformation in his generation, and not only in America. Like all his scholarship, they reflect his unique combination of detailed knowledge, broad interests, and a capacity for stimulating generalization.”

— William J. Bouwsma

“A welcome addition to Reformation studies. . . . Everywhere we hear Oberman’s distinctive voice — erudite, pungent, playful, and pithy, striving to capture a truth for our times in the forgotten, suppressed, or repressed thoughts of bygone centuries.”

— H. C. Erik Midelfort

“This new collection is vintage Oberman. . . . All of these studies, written over a span of nearly thirty years, are marked by Oberman’s unique way of looking at familiar things and ideas and, even more, by his inimitable way of expressing his views.”

— Thomas A. Brady, Jr.
