THE BUSINESS HISTORY REVIEW

¶ The Newcomen Society in North America, in cooperation with the Business History Review, announces a prize of $1,000 and scroll to be awarded in 1976 for the best book on the history of business published in the United States during the years 1973-1975.

¶ For the purposes of this award, "the history of business" will be interpreted in its broadest sense, including not only the history of firms or industries, but books tracing interactions of businessmen, analyses of business philosophy or behavior, and studies of the adjustment of businesses and businessmen to their economic, political, and social environments.

¶ Criteria for selection will include contribution to knowledge, depth of analysis, soundness of reasoning, clarity of style and organization, and general readability and format.

¶ The committee to select the recipient of the 1976 Thomas Newcomen $1,000 Award in Business History is composed of: Professor Glenn Porter, Editor, Business History Review, Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration; Mr. Stanley van den Heuvel, Trustee, The Newcomen Society in North America; and Professor James P. ENTERPRISE AND NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

ESSAYS IN CANADIAN BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC HISTORY
Edited by GLENN PORTER AND ROBERT CUFF

These essays deal with a wide range of important topics in the interaction of business, government, and society in Canada. Their value is two-fold. As careful explorations of Canadian history, they provide important insights into the Canadian past. But the issues they treat are still with us, and these essays make important contributions to the continuing debate over such enduring issues as the mainsprings of national identity, the impact of foreign influence on the economy, the search for economic growth, and the optimum relationship between federal and provincial governments in shaping national development.

These essays appeared originally in Business History Review. Contributors: Glenn Porter, Christopher Armstrong, H. V. Nelles, Michael Bliss, T. W. Acheson, Stephen Scheinberg, Patricia E. Roy, Alan Wilson. 138 pp. $2.50/$6.95.
