For Comprehensive Coverage of SOVIET AFFAIRS...

BULLETIN—This monthly publication of the Institute for the Study of the USSR in Munich, Germany, contains short articles on current Soviet trends, reviews of books and periodicals and a monthly chronicle of important Soviet events. It is both a handy guide to current Soviet events and an important reference for research work.

Twelve issues—$6.00

STUDIES ON THE SOVIET UNION—This quarterly journal of the Institute for the Study of the USSR also deals with problems of current interest, but at greater length and in a broader context than the Bulletin. Each issue contains carefully researched articles by the Institute staff and by outstanding Western scholars.

Four issues—$6.00

SURVEY

A Journal of Soviet and East European Studies

No. 66

January 1968

RELIGION IN THE SOVIET UNION

is the subject of a special issue of SURVEY

This special issue deals with the revival of religious attitudes in the USSR and puts on record its recent manifestations, including those in Soviet literature. Developments in the Orthodox Church, among the Baptists, Jews, and Moslems, Vatican policy towards Eastern Europe, and the prospects of the 'dialogue' between communists and Christians are analysed by specialists in these subjects.

Notice

As of February 1, The China Quarterly will be moving to McCann-Erickson House, 36 Howland St., London, W.1, the address of the new Contemporary China Institute of London University's School of Oriental and African Studies. This move is of more than geographical significance as will be explained in detail in our next issue.

CHINA REPORT

The only journal from India which throws critical light on China's policies, particularly towards the countries of Asia and Africa.

Strives to fill the information gap which for years has marked the general understanding of Communist China in India and other countries of the region.

Written in a manner and style which would interest every careful student of China.

Regular features include:

Exhaustive articles and short notes on current events—Reasoned analyses of the policies, programmes and actions of Communist China—Biographical studies of important Chinese leaders—Running Commentary on the Sino-Soviet dispute—Chronology of important events—Reviews of latest books.

Annual subscription:

Rs.5.00 (India); 15s. (U.K.); $2.00 (U.S.A.)
