Library Catalogue of the School of

ORIENTAL AND AFRICAN STUDIES

University of London

This Catalogue—built up over a period of 45 years—is in three parts: author, subject and title. It contains entries dealing with the whole of Asia, Oceania and Africa. The subjects covered are Language, Literature, Philosophy, Religion, Geography, History, Law, Anthropology, Sociology, Economics, Politics, Art and Archaeology. The fields of Science, Medicine and Technology are represented by historical works referring to the areas of interest to the School; these range over the world except for Europe and America, and even these continents are included in the collections on Phonetics and Linguistics. Numerous analytics are to be found, drawn from periodicals, Festschriften and other collective works. The code of cataloguing is based upon that of the British Museum. Since World War II, the tendency has been to make the subject and title cards as detailed as the author cards.

LITERARY CONTEST IN CHINESE FOR NON-CHINESE WRITERS

The Chinese P.E.N. Centre of Hong Kong, INTERNATIONAL P.E.N. CLUB, announces a literary contest in the Chinese Language for writers of the language who are not Chinese by birth. Through this contest, it is hoped that international understanding of the Chinese language and its literature will be strengthened, and that an active and vital tie with the non-Chinese literary world will be encouraged.

The TITLE of the contest is The Chinese. Entries may be original creation in any of the accepted forms such as Poems, Essays, and Short Stories, and may be in either the Classic or Modern language. The length should be less than five thousand characters.

The DEADLINE will be March 31, 1963. All entries must be postmarked on or before that date. Entries may be addressed to either the local P.E.N. Centre or to:

The Honorary Secretary,
The Chinese P.E.N. Centre of Hong Kong,
1, Breeze Terrace,
Bonham Road,
Hong Kong, B.C.C.

Scrolls and Books will be awarded as prizes. Monetary awards will also be given for the first three places: first prize will be US$1,000; second prize, US$400; and third prize, US$100.
