

WEST AFRICA PARTITIONED

Volume One

The Loaded Pause 1885—89

JOHN D. HARGREAVES

This is the first of two volumes by an eminent authority on the subject, analysing European imperialism in West Africa during the final fifteen years of the nineteenth century, and the reaction it produced. It pays equal attention both to French- as well as English-speaking areas, and also to African as well as European attitudes. Furthermore this period of European expansion and the African leaders' attempts to protect their interests make an enlightening comparison with the 'neo-imperialism' of today.

A MICROFILM SERIES OF GOVERNMENT PUBLICATION RELATING TO AFRICAN TERRITORIES

A series of microfilm publications containing government publications relating to African countries will be released over the next six years by EP Microform in conjunction with the African Studies Association of the United Kingdom. The series will cover the period prior to the independence of the countries, and each publication will contain material designed to provide a comprehensive coverage of Annual Reports, Government Gazettes and statistical Blue Books for each country in the period before independence in addition to other significant documents selected by an editor with expert knowledge of the territory concerned. The series will consist of separate sets of microfilms relating to the following countries:—

Country	Publication Date
Uganda	Published
Gold Coast	May 1974
Nigeria	December 1974
Sierra Leone	March 1975
Gambia	June 1975
Tanganyika and Zanzibar	December 1975
Bechuanaland Protectorate	March 1976
Basutoland	June 1976
Swaziland	August 1976
Natal Colony	October 1976
	— January 1977
Cape Colony	March-October 1977
Orange River Colony	December 1977
Transvaal Colony	March 1978
Northern Rhodesia	June 1978
Malawi	December 1978
Southern Rhodesia	June 1979
Kenya	December 1979
Sudan	June 1980

A summary of the contents of each set of microfilms will be available a few months before its publication, and a detailed synopsis will also be available prior to its release. Each set of microfilms will be prefaced by an introductory essay written by the editor, and this will be contained in a separate printed pamphlet which will accompany the publication to which it relates. Please write to the address below if you wish to be kept informed of the progress of the series. Those already on the EP mailing list will be informed automatically.

INTERNATIONAL REGISTER OF ORGANISATIONS UNDERTAKING AFRICANIST RESEARCH

International African Institute, 210 High Holborn, London
WC1V 7BW

These four volumes provide a wealth of useful information concerning current and recent research in the social sciences and humanities, in universities and research organisations throughout the world. Details are drawn from research registers of several national organisations, from bulletins, newsletters and annual reports, and from direct questionnaire enquiries originating from the International African Institute.

Current Africanist Research Nos. 1, 2 and 3, already available, list over 5,000 projects under way in the period 1971-1973, and each volume includes an introductory overview essay (in English and French) on research and post-graduate activities in various regions of Africa. The volumes should be used with the International Register of Organisations Undertaking Africanist Research (1971) which lists, with addresses, relevant institutes, centres, museums and university departments, and gives details on their structure, aims and activities, personnel and publications.

Current Africanist Research No. (to appear autumn 1974) will continue the listing of research projects and will also include an updating of the International Register, to keep pace with the rapid development of research and research facilities within African universities in particular.

The volumes published to date are now available at the following reduced prices:

The International Register £2.00

Current Africanist Research Nos. 1, 2 and 3 £2.50 each

Postage will be charged extra
