Dictionary Catalog of the Klau Library of the HEBREW UNION COLLEGE –
JEWISH INSTITUTE OF RELIGION, Cincinnati

The Klau Library ranks among the largest repositories of Judaica and Hebraica in the world. It now has over 175,000 volumes and receives more than 1,000 current serials.

Among its holdings are unrivaled collections of Jewish music, one of the outstanding Spinoza collections, extensive materials on 15th and 16th century Judaica and Hebraica, as well as excellent sections in Jewish bibliography, history, philosophy, Hebrew and Yiddish literature, Bible studies and the Ancient Near East. The very strong periodical holdings are enhanced by many analytical entries. Through steady, planned growth, the collection has achieved a balance between older research materials and current publications of quality.

Catalogue of the Gennadius Library
AMERICAN SCHOOL of CLASSICAL STUDIES at Athens

The Gennadius Library's collection of nearly 50,000 volumes is concerned exclusively with Greece, from antiquity to the present; emphasis is on the medieval period and on modern times to 1900.

Particularly fine holdings include: Renaissance editions of the classical and Byzantine authors, and of Greek grammars; early Modern Greek literature; the beginnings of classical archaeology (1750–1825); travellers to the Greek East (to 1900); Greek Bibles and the Orthodox church; early printed materials on Turkish history; Greece under Turkish domination; the Greek War of Independence (including Byroniana); the early Kingdom of Greece; and the "Eastern Question."

Estimated 100,000 cards reproduced in 7 volumes

Price: $467.50

Manuscript Sources for the HISTORY of IRISH CIVILISATION, National Library of Ireland

This is an index to manuscripts relating to Ireland and the activities of Irishmen at home and abroad from the 5th to the 20th century. It has been assembled from the collections of 678 libraries and archives in 395 places in 30 countries, and from more than 600 private collections.

Items from Irish and English Libraries cover every aspect of events in Ireland: medieval Latin manuscripts are concerned with Irish missionary activities in France, Italy, Spain, Germany and other European countries; and papers from the 16th century on deal mainly with careers of Irishmen in foreign military service and with Ireland's relations with other nations. Entries are grouped under four main divisions: persons and institutions; subjects; places; and dates. The fifth division consists of Lists of Manuscripts by location.

310,000 cards reproduced in 11 volumes.

Price: $880.00

Prices include 10% additional charge on orders outside the U.S.

Descriptive material on these titles and a complete catalog of publications are available on request.
