Editorial note

Following recent developments in electronic publishing at Cambridge University Press, we are pleased to announce that starting with the 12.4 issue of Fetal and Maternal Medicine Review, each article and book review will be annotated with a digital object identifier (DOI).

A DOI gives each article and book review a code made up of a Cambridge University Press Prefix and a unique numerical identifier number, which is a code increasingly in use for items published on the web. Such articles and book reviews can then be referenced and retrieved as separate items.

DOIs will also be useful for citing and identifying individual articles as separate entities, without the need to list specific journal, volume or issue details.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
