

CARDIFF LAW SCHOOL
UNIVERSITY OF WALES

LL.M DEGREES IN CANON LAW AND
GRADUATES DISSERTATIONS 2001

David Taylor, ‘“Conduct Unbecoming”, a review of the current law on Clergy Discipline within the Church of England’

Frank Cranmer, ‘“Gifts Differing”. Separation of Powers in Church Government in the United Kingdom’

Simon Doogan, ‘Drumcree: The Interface of Canon Law and Politics’

Stephen Dowling, ‘Legal Arguments surrounding the Status of the Traditional Roman Rite’

Nicholas Shutt, ‘Non-Stipendiary Ministry in the Church of England: Its Development, Place and Future’

Nicholas Thomas, ‘The Reform of the Tithe Laws 1836–1936’

David Parrott, ‘Situations Vacant. A Consideration of the Law of Appointments to Benefices in the Church of England’