

International Law and Fact-Finding in the Field of Human Rights

Revised and Edited Reprint

Edited by Bertrand G. Ramcharan

At the time of its original publication in 1982, this ground-breaking volume sought to identify fundamental norms and standards which could help to guarantee the quality and integrity of fact-finding reports. A lot has happened in human rights fact-finding since then. The current volume is a re-issued version of the original text, with new introductory materials.

ASIL Insights

ASIL Insights are a wonderful way for me to learn quickly from people who are knowledgeable and authoritative about recent and ongoing developments in international law, particularly in areas that are a little outside my own area of expertise, so they help me stay abreast, and they make me more effective in my teaching.

Allen Weiner
Senior Lecturer at Stanford University Law School and Director of Stanford's Program in International and Comparative Law

ASIL Insights, the “international law behind the headlines,” provide brief, balanced accounts of the international law issues raised by newsworthy late-breaking events. They cover the gamut of international legal topics, with past articles covering topics such as the legality of intervention in Syria, the United States’ implementation of adverse WTO rulings, and the International Court of Justice’s ruling on Antarctic whaling. ASIL Insights are distributed to subscribers and posted on the ASIL website approximately two times a month.

To receive ASIL Insights, simply create a guest account at asil.org. To view past Insights or propose a new one, visit www.asil.org/Insights.
