

LO SPETTATORE INTERNAZIONALE

Lo Spettatore Internazionale is published bimonthly by the Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI) of Rome.

During the years 1966 and 1967 the following articles, among others, have appeared in the English Edition of Lo Spettatore Internazionale:

Italian Intellectuals and International Policy
by Enzo Forcella

New International Policy Makers
by Massimo Bonanni

Missiles and Anti-Missiles
by Daniele Zelè

Summary of Reform Proposals in Nato
by Alberto Benzoni (Study Group IAI)

The Non-Proliferation Treaty
by Francesco Calogero (Study Group IAI)

Britain and the Common Market: Narrowing the Gap
by Riccardo Perissich (Study Group IAI)

Industrial Concentration in Europe
by Giuseppe Sacco

The Outlook for Italian Foreign Policy
by Altiero Spinelli

Foreign Affairs in the Italian Party Congresses
by Giorgio Baltico and Stefano Silvestri

Besides articles and studies appearing in the English Edition, the Italian Edition republishes the most relevant articles from other reviews of international politics.

Director: Altiero Spinelli

Editorial Office: Istituto Affari Internazionali, Viale Mazzini 88, Rome—Italy

Subscriptions: Subscription price of either the Italian or English Edition:

Italy	Lit. 2500
Europe	„ 4000
Other Countries	„ 6000 (airmail)

Subscription orders should be sent to the editorial office.