The object of The American Society of International Law is to foster the study of international law and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international relations on the basis of law and justice. For this purpose it co-operates with similar societies in this and other countries.

Membership in the Society is open to all persons of good moral character interested in the objectives of the Society. Membership dues are: Regular, $15.00 for residents of the United States, $10.00 for non-residents; professional, $30.00; intermediate, $10.00; student, $5.00. Application forms and further information may be obtained from the Membership Secretary of the Society at the address given below.

The JOURNAL is published quarterly and is supplied to all members of The American Society of International Law without extra charge. The annual subscription to non-members of the Society is $15.00 and includes subscription to the Proceedings of the Society. Available single numbers of the current volume of the JOURNAL will be supplied at $3.50 per copy; other available back numbers at $4.50 per copy.

The views expressed in the articles, editorial comments, book reviews and notes, and other contributions which appear in the JOURNAL are those of the individual authors and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Board of Editors or of The American Society of International Law.

Subscriptions, orders for back numbers, correspondence with reference to the JOURNAL, manuscripts, and books for review should be sent to the Assistant Editor of the JOURNAL, 2223 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C. 20008.
