30th Annual Health Law Teachers Conference
Boston University School of Law
Boston, MA
May 31 - June 2, 2007

This conference is intended for professionals who teach law or bioethics in schools of law, medicine, public health, health care administration, pharmacy, nursing, and dentistry. ASLME's Annual Health Law Teachers Conference combines presentations by experienced health law teachers with the opportunity for discussion among conference participants. The program is designed to provide participants with updates on issues at the forefront of law and medicine and to provide them with the opportunity to share strategies, ideas, and materials.

TERASEM MOVEMENT, INC. CALL FOR JOURNAL SUBMISSIONS

Terasem Movement, Inc., is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit charity endowed for the purpose of educating the public on the practicality and necessity of greatly extending human life, consistent with diversity and unity, via geoethical nanotechnology and personal cyberconsciousness.

The Journal of Geoethical Nanotechnology welcomes submissions of scholarly articles on the topic of artificial machine systems that are constructed atom-by-atom and that may have global impact. The Journal is particularly interested in articles on self-replicating molecular nanotechnology and the application to such systems of geoethical principles.

The Journal of Personal Cyberconsciousness welcomes submissions of scholarly articles on the topic of replicating human consciousness in computer substrate. The Journal is particularly interested in articles that report details of tests, mechanisms and processes necessary to replicate a person's mannerisms, personality, recollections, feelings, beliefs, attitudes and values in a computer. The Journal is also pleased to publish articles that are capable of enabling a person's consciousness to emerge from a computer.

Articles for either journal should be submitted in Microsoft Word to editor@terasemjournal.org or to Editor, Terasem Movement, Inc., P.O. Box 372869, Satellite Beach, FL 32937. Articles may not exceed 16,000 words, including references, although supplemental hyperlinked material is permitted and is not included in the word count. Please do not include author's name within the body of the article (e.g. as a header) in order to facilitate blind review of submissions.
