SLIDES COLLECTION

The Slides Collection contains over 5,000 coloured slides (35 mm.) covering a wide variety of subjects, including sites on the Greek mainland, the Greek islands, Cyprus, Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, Etruscan tomb paintings, Roman frescoes and mosaics and Greek vases.

Individual slides, sets and filmstrips may be bought or hired by members. The hire charge is at present 3p per slide per week, and 60p per slide for purchase. A list of sets is available on request; the catalogue of slides costs £2.00 (post free inland).

There are 31 coloured sets, of which 14 are available as filmstrips. Notes to sets are included in the hire price of £1.20 per set per week. Several new sets are in preparation.

For further particulars apply to the Keeper of Slides at 31-34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP.

Special Offer to JRS Subscribers

Glass of the Caesars

The most exotic exhibition of Roman glass ever assembled – the finest cameo glass, engraved glass, cage cups, gold glass from Italy, Cologne, the USA and London – opens at the British Museum on November 20th 1987.

The 'Glass of the Caesars' exhibition catalogue is a volume that is in every way equal to the objects displayed. Compiled by Donald Harden, it provides an authoritative introduction to each type of glass, and detailed description, comment and bibliography for each piece. And there are stunning full colour photos of all 161 items, and drawings of details.

Paperback, 313p, 199 colourplates, 136 drawings. Printed in Italy, published by Olivetti, distributed by Oxbow.

The catalogue costs £25.00 – but is available as a special offer to JRS subscribers for only £19.50: and, with every catalogue that Oxbow sells, there is a FREE ticket to the exhibition at the British Museum.

Pagan Gods and Shrines of the Roman Empire

edited by Martin Henig and Anthony King

An important collection of twenty three papers covering many aspects of religion in Roman Britain, at Rome itself and in provinces in all parts of the Empire. Cults, deities and topics discussed include Bacchus, Faunus, Sulis Minerva, Epona, Venus, Nero-Helios, Diana Nemorensis, Jupiter and Taranis, Roman or Celtic temples and deities, the Pantheon, interpretatio romana among Semitic populations, pagan priesthoods in the later Empire.

Oxford University Committee for Archaeology, Monograph 8.

A4, pb, 265pp, over 100 illus. Published 1986, £25.00.

Hengistbury Head

Volume I: Prehistoric and Roman Settlement 3500 BC–AD 500 by Barry Cunliffe

This first report on the 1979–1985 excavations focuses on the Iron Age and Roman port: harbour works and settlement, with discussions of imports and trade in the 1st century BC. Earlier Neolithic/Bronze Age material is also fully described.

Oxford University Committee for Archaeology, Monograph 13. ISBN 0 947816 13 5

A4, hardback, 363pp, 236 line drawings, 20 plates, 8 fiches. Published July 1987, £40.00.

The Coins from Excavations in Colchester 1971–1979

edited by Nina Crummy

This volume goes beyond the presentation of coins as dating evidence to examine groups of coins within the collection in search of information about the coins themselves, particularly the irregular coins in the Roman assemblages; Claudian, third century, Constantinian. Contributors include Roger Goodburn (Celtic coins), Richard Reece, Robert Kenyon, John Davies, M Hammerson, Justine Bayley (Roman coins) and Marion Archibald (Medieval coins and tokens).

(Colchester Archaeological Report 4, 1987). Hb, 119pp, 11 plates, 3 fiche, £13.50.

Brooches of Antiquity

by Richard Hattatt

Well over 700 brooches are described in this third selection from the author's collection. Most are of the Roman period, but Iron Age, Anglo-Saxon and Medieval brooches are also included. There are full descriptions and drawings of each brooch; and discussions on enamelling and brooch fastenings.

Hardback, 420pp with drawings. (Oxbow Books, 1987) £28.00.

Catullus and His World

T. P. WISEMAN

'T. P. Wiseman's Catullus and His World must be one of the most readable and exciting new books about a Latin poet for many years... [it] can confidently be recommended to anyone interested in Catullus and not just to the professional classical scholar or student.'

Propertius: A Hellenistic Poet on Love and Death

THEODORE D. PAPANGHELIS

This book examines the theme of erotic death which characterised the poetry of Propertius. The author studies the structure, imagery, word-play, ambiguity and allusive technique, of the elegies, revealing a 'learned' and sensuous poet building up his poetry with material whose significance for his aesthetic has not always been fully appreciated.

The Egyptian Hermes

A Historical Approach to the Late Pagan Mind

GARTH FOWDEN

Sage, scientist and sorcerer, Hermes Trismegistus was the culture-hero of Hellenistic and Roman Egypt, who was credited with the authorship of a whole library of books on magic and the supernatural, alchemy, astrology, theology and philosophy. This book is the first investigation of the Hermetic milieu by a social historian.

Hispaniae

Spain and the Development of Roman Imperialism, 218-82 BC

J. S. RICHARDSON

This book traces the beginnings and the first 140 years of the Roman presence in Spain, showing how what began as a purely military commitment developed into a range of civilian activities, including taxation and the founding of both Roman and native settlements. Thus the book is of major importance to an understanding of the spread of Roman power in this period throughout the Mediterranean world.

The Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies

31–34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP

President: Sir David Hunt, KCMG, OBE

THE Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London

1. A Library of some 65,000 volumes, with c. 450 current periodicals.
2. Over 5,500 coloured slides covering a wide variety of subjects, sets of slides with lecture texts and film-strips.

Books and slides can be sent to Members by post. Communications about books and slides should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four general meetings, with lectures, are held in London annually and there are other meetings in different parts of the country.

Subscribers receive the Society's two annual publications: The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, illustrations, and book reviews; Archaeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of fresh discoveries in Greece and Greek lands, with bulletins announcing important new acquisitions by museums in Britain.

These two periodicals are on sale to the general public.

The annual subscription to the Society is £17.00. The composition fee for life-membership is £85.00 for those over 65 years of age, after 5 years membership. The subscription for Libraries is £22.00 and for Student Associates £7.50. There is no entrance fee.

Applications for membership or inquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Secretary. Telephone: 01-387 7495.

The Classical Association

THE main aims of the Classical Association are to promote and sustain interest in classical studies, to maintain their rightful position in universities and schools, and to give scholars and teachers opportunities of meeting and discussing their problems. It organizes an annual conference, lasting four or five days, in a university centre, and sponsors some thirty branches, most of which hold Greek and Latin Reading Competitions for Schools. Its activities are fully reported in its annual Proceedings, issued free to all members.

The present membership of the Association is just under 4,000. Membership is open both to individuals and to institutions at an annual subscription of £3; life composition for individual members, £63. Members may obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review £13, Quarterly £14; combined subscription, £24). Greece and Rome may also be obtained through the Association for an annual subscription of £11. Applications for membership and subscriptions for the journals (which should normally be received by 31st January in each year) should be addressed to the Treasurer, Mr. R. Wallace, Dept. Classics, University of Keele, Keele, Staffs. ST5 5BG.

The Association can also supply copies of the Index to the First Series of the Classical Review (price £1.50, post free) and of the last issue of The Year's Work in Classical Studies, covering the years 1945–47 (price £1, post free). These publications and details of the various occasional publications of the Association are obtainable from the Treasurer. Inquiries should be sent to either of the Joint Secretaries, Prof. John Percival, Dept. of Classics, University College, P.O. Box 78, Cardiff CF1 1XL, and Miss H. M. Jones, 20 Lowestoft Road, Watford, Herts WD2 5AX.

Binding for the Journal of Roman Studies

Green Street Bindery, Green Street, Oxford OX4 1YB, will undertake to bind volumes in brown buckram, laced on boards, with title and year lettered in gold on spine to match the former standard binding, at an approximate cost of £16.90 per volume (wrappers and advertisements removed or bound in at customer's request). No extra charge for two volumes bound together. Postage chargeable extra.
