Philosophy

Editor: Renford Bambrough, President of St. John's College, Cambridge and Sidgwick Lecturer in Philosophy

Published quarterly for The Royal Institute of Philosophy

Philosophy is concerned with the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, mind and education.

The journal is not committed to any particular school or method and contributors are expected to avoid needless technicality. In addition to original articles, each issue contains a section on new books which includes reviews, notes and a list of books received.

Published quarterly. Subscription to Volume 58 (1983): $110.00. Volume 58 includes two supplements of Philosophy, in addition to the four regular issues.
